NEW BRUNSWICK BOYS FALL IN BATTLE

Carleton County Boys Pay the Supreme Sacrifice—Others Wounded

During the past two weeks the Canadians have been paying fearful toll on the front. It would seem that the whole four divisions were busily engaged in the thickest of the fray. Last week an official announcement came of the death in action of John A. Orser, son of Oakley Orser of Cloverdale. He served with the Home Guard at St. Leonards at the beginning of the war and later existed with the 115th and went to England with that unit. From that he was transferred to the 26th and served upwards of a year in France. He had not previously been wounded and the saddened parents have the deep sympathy of all.

Washington Craig, son of W. C. Craig of Rockland, is reported wounded in the arm. He enlisted with the 140th and in England was drafted in the 5th C.M.R.

Report that Walter Hayward was wounded is not substantiated.

Boy DeMerchant of Beth is reported killed in action. He was the son of John DeMerchant and in 1916 enlisted with the 140th. For a time he was stationed at Woodstock, Valcartier and Halifax. He reached England in October, 1916, when he was drafted to the 26th Battalion. In the Battle of Lens, August, 1917, he suffered shrapnel wounds but was only off duty for a short time. This lad was only 15 years of age when he enlisted.

Another to pay the supreme sacrifice was Pte. Arden Hallett of Millville, who left the Bank of Nova Scotia in Fredericton and joined the first contingent. The deceased was the son of Josiah Hallett and besides his parents he is survived by three sisters and five brothers. Mrs. Walter Hay of Hartland is an aunt.

The young man was through some of the fiercest battles the Canadians have fought.

C. N. Boyer of Florenceville is also reported wounded.

NEW CROP MOVING

Some potatoes have been shipped out and early next week will see Cobblers pretty generally on the move. The crop of potatoes is good both in quality and quantity. The opening price of $3.00 is not likely to be maintained.

Large quantities of turnips are moving and $1.25 per barrel is being paid.

A Grand Falls Hero

Corporal Thomas Pirie was only nineteen years old last spring. In January, 1916, when but seventeen, he enlisted in the 115th Battalion, when Lieut. Colonel Guthrie, then not recovered from his wounds, spoke at a recruiting meeting, and twenty-eight young men felt the call of duty and offered themselves in the service of king and country. He went overseas in August of that year, and was later transferred to the 26th Battalion, in which unit he went to France and fell.

A short time ago he won his corporal's stripes in action on the field. He was a boy who was very popular with all who knew him, his genial disposition winning him friends wherever he went, and the news of his death will be heard with sincere regret by all his friends. He was a great friend of Private Reid T. West of the 115th Battalion, whose death in France occurred about a year ago.

Corporal Pirie was the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pirie. He leaves besides his parents, three brothers, Charles of Vancouver, Frederick and Harold, living here; and four sisters, Miss Alice, employed in the Royal Bank, Marie, Ruth and Jane. To all of them the heartfelt sympathy of the young soldier's host of friends goes out. His country honors him, and his life has been given in the noblest cause in which one can die.

HORSE BREAKS NECK AT DANGER SPOT

Usual Interesting Budget of Centreville News

The long hoped for rain arrived on Saturday but in very meagre quantity. A little of course is much better than none, but a day's downpour would work wonders for the root and vine crops. The rapid evaporation due to the recent run of hot days, has resulted in a very dry looking landscape and causing the different harvests to mature much too rapidly.

The plant ouse which made its appearance here recently has developed into a real pest and nearly all foliage is beginning to show dire results from its ravages. Its characteristic of living on the under side of the leaf, makes it a very difficult enemy to combat, even with the present artifices and preparations for spraying. All express the hope that the wee devils will not visit us annually.

The West Florenceville approach to the bridge has given further evidence of the danger element there and should cause immediate precautions to be taken to prevent the recurrence of a similar or worse disaster. On Saturday morning a horse drawing a wagon with William Peterson and daughter occupants ran away while going down the hill. Luckily the pair were thrown out of the carriage escaping serious injury. The horse, however, continuing, pitched headlong over the bridge on the rocks below breaking its neck.

Rev. Mr. Tait of Halifax spent last week with his friend, Rev. J. B. Champion.

Miss Beatrice Nevers of Lewiston visited at the home of Harry Hagerman last week, returning to Hartland on Sunday.

Miss Eleanor Trites of Salisbury is visiting at the Methodist parsonage.

Albert Fields and wife spent Sunday at Jas. O'Hara's.

Mrs. Jennie Beckwith and family have returned to their home here after a month's visit with her parents in Fort Fairfield.

R. J. Clark returned on Saturday from an extended business trip to the upper part of the province and Quebec.

Word has been received of the safe arrival in France of Misses Annetel West and Fernie McClintock with the American Expeditionary Forces.

Miss Frances Simonson of Boston is visiting her brother Harry at his home here.

Rev. H. F. Rigby arrived home from New York on Friday accompanied by his sister, Miss Helena Rigby. They left on Saturday for a three week's visit with their parents in St. Andrews.

David Alexander and family of Jacksonton spent Sunday with Mrs. J. E. Alexander.

We are glad to welcome back to town as citizens Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Vail. Mr. Vail has closed out his business interests in Florenceville and has resumed business.

Children Can Serve By Saving

One of the great lessons of this War is the value of Thrift. Let the children learn it, too, by saving through a Bank of Nova Scotia account.

There is no more useful "nest egg" when college or business days come, than a substantial savings account.
