LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Death arrived suddenly on Friday morning and removed from our midst Elijah Mies Hawkins. Deceased had been in ordinary health and had attended church the previous evening. When the family arose next morning they found him calmly sleeping and thought to leave him so for a good rest. An hour later on going to arouse him for breakfast they found that he had passed peacefully away without the sign of a struggle, evidently from some latent cardiac trouble. Mr. Hawkins was about 71 years of age, a native of York county, and came here as a young man with a young wife, where they have lived continuously since. His wife predeceased him some few years. He leaves to mourn, one sister, Mrs. Matthew Crone; three sons, A. R. and Burt of this place and Grant of Keswick and one daughter, Mrs. Sanford Hallett of Windsor. The funeral services conducted by S. W. Bart were held at his late home and in the U. B. church of which body he had been a life-long member. The pastor, Rev. H. R. Bell, was the officiating clergyman, and interment was made in the adjacent family lot.

Rev. E. A. Wightman of Florenceville was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Miller last week.

All automobile owners rejoiced last week when the local highway commissioner gave them permission generally to get out their busses. Nor were they long in taking advantage of the long-awaited prerogative. Soon the streets were lined with cars of every season's vintage from ancient flivvers to modern master sixes, yet all emitting the same glad note of deliverance. Sunday proved inclement, and so prohibited a number of prospective joy-rides. Some of the roads are still impassable and should receive immediate attention from local road-king. It seems scarcely fair that one should pay license annually and then be restricted to three or four months joy-riding, mostly on account of the slothfulness of those put in charge of the good road scheme in each local domain.

At three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon at the home of John Cormier a pretty little ceremony was enacted when Miss Thelma Irvine of Mars Hill daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Irvine became the bride of Archibald Raymond McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. McLean of Centreville. Only immediate relatives and close friends of the bride and groom were present. Mrs. Ward B. Webb rendered Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the happy pair entered and the knot was tied by Rev. H. R. Bell. Following the felicitations the couple left for Mars Hill, where a reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. McLean will reside in Centreville, on the conclusion of their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Huggard of St. John, a bride and groom of two weeks, arrived on the Valley Friday evening for a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Crone. A large crowd of young friends of the bride met the couple at the train and formed an escort home. Then while the family were pleasantly indulged in a late evening lunch, the young folk organized a real old-fashioned charivari party and made a terrible noise.

Dr. B. R. Field of Centreville and Ernest Field of Bloomfield were called home to Port Elgin last week
