The first Sunday afternoon meeting for men in the Y. M. C. A. rooms was a decided success. A goodly number were present and listened with close attention to a very pointed and practical address from a visiting clergyman. The singing was good and everyone seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves. The Executive are planning to nake these afternoon meetings a regular feature of the Association work, and extend a cordial invitation to old and young men

The Norwegian barques in port were flying their flags on Saturday in honor of Norway's natal day, or rather the day on which the Norwegians gained the power to 1814, when Norway was ceded to Sweden. The one king reigns over Sweden and Norway, but beyond the sending of a viceroy the government of the country. All the legislative power resides entirely in the CLEVELAND, national representative assembly, called the Storthing (great court), which meets yearly. The day is celebrated among the Norwegians no matter in what part of the world they resides.

The second contingent of young lady teachers from Canada for South Africa left London on the morning of the 10 inst. They were all well and said they felt almost as homesick at leaving England as they did at leaving Canada. The agent general for New Brunswick and others went to the station to see them off and they expressed themselves delighted with the treatment they had received in England.
