Laymen's Meeting. The meeting of the Laymen's Movement, held in the Alexandra Rink last evening, was attended by an audience that filled the floor space. The speakers of the evening were Hon. A. B. Morine, K. C., and Mr. W. D. Gwynne, both of Toronto.

Mr. George C. Copley was the chairman, and Bishop DuMontin was also on the platform. Mr. Copley, in a few words introduced the first speaker, Mr. Gwynne.

on the breadth of the movement. He gave some pointers on what the Laymen's Missionary Movement did not stand for. It is not a scheme for the raising of money; it is not for the purpose of sending out missionaries to foreign countries...

Mr. Gwynne said there were three points which commended themselves to the business men of the country in connection with the laymen's missionary movement. The first was the sanity of the movement...

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home as stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency, especially at night, painful urination and other urinary troubles...

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

BURIAL AT ARNPRIOR. (Special Despatch to the Times.) Ottawa, April 30.—Mary Kitterer, the domestic, who belongs to Arnprior, and who shot herself at Cobalt yesterday morning, died late in the afternoon, all efforts to save her life being futile.

The next speaker was Hon. A. B. Morine, K. C., of Toronto. He was accorded a hearty reception. In the course of his remarks he said that the workers in the movement had come to believe that it is an inspiration. While it is generally known, the movement had its origin in a rather startling way.

The laymen's missionary movement is not so-called to supplant the efforts of the clergy in the missionary work. It is its desire to assist them; also it is their desire to supplant the women of the church who have done so much in the past. How does your tobacco, liquor or club bill compare with the missionary offerings of the men of today?

Y. M. C. A. CAMERA CLUB. Last night in the boys' parlor at the Y. M. C. A. a meeting was held to form a Camera Club, in which the following officers were elected: President, H. Taylor; Vice-President, A. Wilson; Secretary, W. E. Smith; Executive Committee, M. Kappelle, J. Bainbridge.

fish motive. "Do I believe in Jesus Christ?" That was the one question to be asked. If you do then there is no need to ask the question whether it is right to give to foreign missions. It is not necessary that a man should belong to a church or be a communicant to answer that question...

Mr. Adam Brown moved a hearty vote of thanks, seconded by Mr. Kirwan Martin. The large and enthusiastic audience heartily endorsed the motion with a standing vote.

BACKACHE IS SIGN.

Simple Home Remedy Given to Prevent Serious Kidney Trouble.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney derangement, often developed into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible.

There is no better general remedy known to relieve all forms of rheumatism either, because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged-up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous acid and waste matter which if not eliminated settle about the joints and muscular tissues causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

Closing Organ Recital. The following programme of popular music will be played by Mr. Hewlett at his closing organ recital in Centenary Church on Saturday afternoon next. May 2nd: Choral (Bach) Fugue (Bach) Marche Reverie (Lemare) Three Lieder ohne Worte (Mendelssohn) Funeral March, Spring Song, and Spinning Wheel; Moment Musical (Schubert) March from Queen of Sheba (Gomold).

Between the Acts. One of the big hits at the Savoy last night was a scene from "A Night in Ireland" presented by fifty of John Hackett's pupils. It is a bright and pleasing number and was enthusiastically applauded from start to finish. The cleverness of the pupils collectively and individually is a credit to their able instructor, Mr. Hackett.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain cure for all skin diseases, including eczema, psoriasis, and other eruptions. It is a powerful and penetrating remedy, and is guaranteed to give relief in every case.

She was recalled several times and a bouquet of roses was passed over the footlights to her. Miss Hinkle met with the hearty appreciation of the audience. Her voice is a clear, brightly-toned soprano, and she has a crisp and artistically effective method of singing. Her group of songs were well chosen and displayed her style splendidly.

The last important concert of the almost-departed musical season was given in the Grand Opera House last evening by three artists from the republic: Jeanette Vermorel, violinist; Claude Cunningham, baritone; and Florence Hinkle, soprano, with W. H. Hewlett, M. Bae., as accompanist.

Concerto 3rd. Saint Saens. Miss Jeanette Vermorel. Aria—Prayer from La Tosca. Puccini. Miss Florence Hinkle. (a) Minnelied. Brahms. (b) Sonntag. Hindelch. (c) Der Alte Garten. Hindelch. (d) Pilgrim Song. Tschakovsky. Zigeunerweisen. Sarasate. Miss Jeanette Vermorel. Duet from Elijah. Mendelssohn. Miss Florence Hinkle and Claude Cunningham.

Her Love Song. Salter. Wenn ich in deine Augen sehe. Stephens. The Wind. Spross. The Way of June. Willey. Miss Florence Hinkle. (a) Sunset. Highland Laddie. (b) Bonnie Laddie. Highland Laddie. (c) Faithful Johnnie. (d) Song of the Flea. Beethoven. Scherzo and Tarentella. Wieniawski. Miss Jeanette Vermorel.

Miss Vermorel, the violinist, is a young lady who has the courage to play some of the more weighty compositions for that fascinating instrument. For the most part she was successful. Saint Saens' Concerto, which was new to Hamilton, demands much from the player, and while Miss Vermorel did not reach in it the highest heights of excellence, she presented a pleasing reading of the work, overcoming many difficult passages admirably.

George H. Graham, an Oxford graduate, by the way, is perhaps the best young English comedian in America. The supporting players are all good, and the whole company, in fact, is such a one as a fine theatre would secure to be a permanent company in a large city.

For his headline attraction at Bennett's Theatre. His next week Manager Driscoll has been able to secure the celebrated "Raindrops." Their act is a lively mélange of singing and dancing with some excellent and novel stage effects. This week the bill has been playing to great houses, and something like a record will be established by the box office receipts.

Hal Davis and company, in their great comedietta, "A Race For a Wife," have made a name for themselves that should ensure them the warmest welcome should they ever come to this city again. As it is their act is awaited with the greatest eagerness this week, and is followed with the most intense interest.

Corbett in First Class Houses. Toronto, April 30.—James J. Corbett, who is as good an actor with his hands as with his feet, will step into the ring with the legitimate drama of first-class houses next season, thus again responding to an ambition that has gnawed at his histrionic ever since he lost the championship belt.

At the present moment Corbett is in the Far West, performing "The Burglar and the Lady" under the direction of Aubrey Mitchell. His contract with Mitchell expires next month. John Fraze has drafted him for the upper dramatic crust, and it is reported, John Cort is interested with Fraze in the promotion.

Meanwhile the Mittenthals are not re-joining Harry of that ilk in preparation a pretty little thing set to music which he calls "Too Many Wives." Joe Morris, a Hebrew comedian, will be his star. Horwitz & Bowers, who can turn out a popular song while you wait—providing you are that careless—have supplied the works.

And again, Harry Mittenthal has in contemplation another pretty little thing named "Wanted by the Police." And, furthermore, this same Mittenthal will offer to his constituents next season Laugdon McCormick and Sylvia Bidwell as costars in a play from McCormick's pen.

and Tenney's original musical act is not the least popular item in this great bill. A Great Old Play.

On his coming visit to this city Mr. E. H. Sothern will be seen for the first time here as Lord Dundreary, the character made famous by his father fifty years ago.

Mr. Sothern produced "Lord Dundreary" for the first time in Washington three months ago, and the old play was described as fragrant as the odor from a rose jar. This is the comedy in which, for years, E. A. Sothern, Mr. Sothern's father, amused a generation of American playgoers, now turned grey-headed, when the play was known as "Our American Cousin." The story of "Lord Dundreary" is, in itself, of the with a mortgage and a will, a villain and a sodden "foiler" of the villain as concomitants.

Prominent members of Mr. Sothern's company this season are Rowland Buckstone, Sidney Mather, Frank Reicher, Howson, William Harris, John Taylor, Virginia Hammond, Gladys Hanson, Mrs. Holcomb and Kathryn Wilson.

At the Savoy Theatre. The performance at the Savoy to-night, under the patronage of St. George's Society, should fill the house to capacity. The officers of the society and members of the Board of Management are to occupy the boxes. The entertainment will be of the best.

Scotch Night to-morrow, when the theatre will play a programme of Scotch airs and Burkholder's Daughters of the Empire Minstrels will appear, should see the theatre packed from pit to dome. The minstrel act in which twenty-five charming young ladies appear in artistic costumes of white and yellow is sure to prove a delightfully entertaining feature. The chorus, under the direction of Harry Burkholder, is an exceptionally good one and includes some of the best singers in the city.

OBITUARY. The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Orton took place this morning from her late residence, 16 Florence street, to the T. H. & B. station. The remains were taken to St. Thomas for interment. A funeral service was held at the house last evening, and was conducted by Archdeacon Forrester.

The funeral of Solomon Camp took place yesterday afternoon from Green's undertaking parlors. Rev. P. W. Pailport conducted the services, and the pall-bearers were H. Kelder, H. Camp, W. Wolter, G. King, M. Camp, A. Camp.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Marsden were laid at rest yesterday afternoon, the funeral taking place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Pemberton, 13 Garth street. Archdeacon Forrester officiated at the services, and the pall-bearers were G. Brand, F. Pearson, W. Ford, W. Fletcher, J. Shepley and T. Meehan.

"Ah!" sighed the soulful young woman, sniffing the balmy air, "there's no mistaking the spirit of spring in this glorious morning. How mysterious is the pungent perfume in the air." "But," suggested the practical young man, "maybe that pungent smell ain't so mysterious, after all. I think it's the camphor off the last year's suits so many fellows are wearing to-day."—Catholic Standard and Times.
