W. F. Finlay, minister of agriculture, and W. F. Stevenson, of Clover Bar. While on their way from the picnic to Vegreville they had the opportunity to act the good Samaritan. A Mr. Anderson, a Norwegian who has not been long in the country, had the misfortune to cut his leg with an axe while chopping wood. His cries attracted their attention. Going to his assistance they found him bleeding profusely from a bad gash. Mr. Finlay happened to have some medicine in his grip. He dressed the wound and applied the medicine and the unfortunate man is getting along nicely.

A series of baseball games has been played here by local teams. The East and West Enders had a ray at it, the first game resulting in a victory for the East Enders by a score of 8 to 6. Last night the Single Men with Pitman and McCusker assisting and on whom the Single Men had pinned their faith and hope, defeated the Married Men by the narrow margin of 10 to 8. Only relatives of the bride and a few intimate friends were present. The groom is well known in Vegreville, where he lived and owned a large ranch for the past five years. Mr. and Mrs. Wood left on the Saturday evening train for their home in Raymond after visiting Winnipeg, Chicago, Minneapolis and other cities in the west.

Last Saturday, while Heber Smith and his brother, C. D. Smith, were crossing on the ferry at Brossseau, they had the misfortune to have a valuable horse drowned. It seems that on account of the high water that the ferry cannot be brought near enough to the shore and the team had to be driven into the water. One of the team got in deep water and was swept under the ferry with the strong water and before he could be taken out was drowned. It was with great difficulty that they managed to save the other horse.

A mare belonging to Moses Duguet thought her calf was across the river, plunged into the water and was swept under the ferry and in spite of the efforts put forth to save her was drowned.
