COMPULSORY SERVICE

If Enlistment of Young Men is not Satisfactory by Nov. 30th.

LONDON, To-day. A strong intimation of compulsion at an early date is contained in a statement last night by Earl Derby, Director of Recruiting. Lord Derby said whether a man is indispensable or not to his business will be decided by the man or his employer, but by competent authorities and tribunals which are being set up to consider such cases.

The report of the torpedoing of the Southland, which formerly was the Red Star Liner Vaderland, was given out by the Overseas News Agency at Berlin, on Sept. 9.

GENERAL MONROE IN SERBIA.

LONDON, To-day. There has been no material change the last 24 hours in the situation either in Serbia or the other fronts. The Austro-Germans claim to be advancing along the line west of Nish, but beyond reports of the capture of another four thousand prisoners. The Serbian report says like those reported captured by the Austro-Germans, the Serbian army, for the right wing must be free from this menace before they proceed with their drive. The news from the Southern part of the country is probably true. It is now known that the French did not re-occupy but simply made a cavalry raid into the town of Krievolok, are endeavoring to form a junction with the Serbians who are fighting in Babuna Pass. A new British division having larger forces under the command of General Monroe are spreading out towards Strumitsa, where encounters with Bulgarians are reported with the arrival of Kitchener who should soon be on the scene further developments in the Balkans are expected. It is probable the Gallipoli army may become more active. So long as the Serbian army remains intact which it has done so far, as is evidenced by the Russian successes both north and south. The Germans admit they withdrew troops from the Crimea for the purpose of supporting the Russian army. By their recent gains the Russians have established connection between their forces on the Gulf of Riga by way of Kemmer and Lake Babit which is half way between Riga and Mitau. As a result of activity of hostile submarines freight rates between Cardiff and the Mediterranean Sea continue to jump. A fresh report was made to-day when fifty shillings were quoted for Port Said.

2.00 P. M.

PURSING SERBIANS.

BERLIN, To-day. The pursuit of the Serbian army in a southerly direction continues, according to German official report issued to-day. The advance of the Germans in Rasina Valley, southwest of Kreuse Vac has reached the town of Kupci. Further eastward Ribare and Ribarske Banja have been reached. Yesterday more than 1,700 Serbians were taken prisoners and 11 cannons captured.

The London Air Raid.

8 Waddon March Lane, Croyden, England, 14/10/15.

Dear Mary,—Many thanks for your letter, but I cannot stop to answer it in detail, as I have one ear listening for bombs. We had very terrible raid all over London and Croyden around us last night. We were watching one shell bursting in the air over London at 8.30 last night, after all was quiet we went to bed at 10.30. Just got in our first sleep and a terrific bang close by we were kept up. I fell out of bed and opened my door to call my children when bang went another and lit up all the house, so you can guess the state we are all in.

I had just written to Joe and was in the middle of this when a letter came from him, he has come out of the big battle safely, and says he will write you, and asks if I have heard from Will yet. Now, dear Mary, will you enclose a cutting from to-night's paper to let you know the extent of the damage up to now, and will write again shortly as I feel almost to had to write any more.

With love to yourself, and kind regards to Dad and your husband, I am always your loving friend,

JENNIE BENNETT.

ONE OF NEWFOUNDLAND'S BRAVE BOYS.

Dear Sister,—I suppose you think I am not going to write you again; you see I am still alive; I was in England, I know you heard all about it, so that will save me the trouble of having to tell you. I had a nice time, but was not feeling well when I was there.

I received Auntie's letter yesterday and was glad to get it. We are kept wonderfully busy now. I hope you received the photo; I do not look very good, as I had a bad head, but the others are all right.

Well, Mary, you asked if I had forgotten dear mother. No, I will never forget her. I trust she is happier now than she would be were she alive. You know she would be worrying about us. Please let me know all the news when you write. I suppose Will will soon be in England now; he will meet some good people if he goes to Croyden. I do

Now, Mary, write me soon. Love to your little boy, husband, and friends. Good bye.

Your brother, JOE.

Nothing Stops This Man

The man with vigorous, virile health, and a clear mind, who brushes away obstacles, and rejoices in overcoming difficulties, is bound to succeed. His is the joyous outlook on life.

Physical and mental conditions like these come largely through proper eating—"Food makes the man."

Now it is a fact—attested by food experts—that the modern dietary is woefully lacking in the very elements that put success into a man. They are the mineral salts—Phosphate of Potash, etc. White bread is almost wholly lacking in them. But there is one food that wholly supplies these vital elements, and that food is

Grape-Nuts

Made from whole wheat and barley, Grape-Nuts contains all the nutriment of the grain, including the valuable mineral salts. It is easily digested, is concentrated and has delicious taste. A daily ration of Grape-Nuts along with other food helps build vigorous bodies and keen brains.
