Rescued from Drowning.

Swimming Instructor Hickey of Long Pond has yet another life to his credit. Yesterday afternoon a boy named Kavanach was swimming out of his depth when he was seized with cramp. His companions hurried to his rescue, and Hickey, who was standing on the bank, also plunged in and succeeded in bringing the drowning lad ashore. Artificial respirattoo was applied, and Dr. Anderson, who had been summened, succeeded in bringing Kavanagh back to consciousness. He had fully recovered last night.
