

WESTERN ONTARIO.

BRANT.
John Armstrong, Falkland, has sold his farm of 57 acres, to Mr. Clossum, of Bow Park. Price paid, about $60 per acre. Paris intends celebrating Dominion Day.

ESSEX.
Walter White, the 7-year-old son of Joseph White, of Brantford, was being drowned on Goyeau street, Windsor, Thursday night. The board of works during the day had made a large excavation in the middle of the street so as to try and find out what was stopping the sewer. The heavy rain filled the hole up, and young White, unaware of the danger, walked into the hole. He managed to get hold of some boards and keep himself afloat until pulled out.

The body of a well-dressed man about 35 years of age was seen floating in the river near Queen's dock, Sandwich, about 7:30 o'clock Friday night. Several men procured a rowboat and brought the body to the shore. The man was about 5 feet 9 inches in height, had brown hair and mustache and gray eyes. The body was dressed in a dark coat and vest, striped pants, white shirt and necktie and standing collar. Attached to the bottom of the shirt was a diamond stud. Behind the left ear was a wound probably made with a sharp instrument. The man's clothing was searched, but nothing was found. The person by which he could be identified.

There is a movement on foot to form a company of Amherstburg and Pelee Island people to buy the steamer Telegram and keep her permanently on the Windsor and Lake Shore route.

Sandwich General Sessions open June 14.

ELGIN.
Neil Love, of St. Thomas, on Saturday purchased the first wool of the season, the price paid being 16 cents per pound. Wool will be low this season owing to the amount held over in the country hands from last season.

Anthony Ryan died on Saturday morning at his residence, Yarmouth Heights, in his 87th year. He leaves a wife and four sons, Patrick and Timothy, of St. Thomas, and Francis and Michael, of Chicago.

There has just been turned out of the C. E. R. shops, St. Thomas, a train of cars to run on the Niagara branch. It consists of two elegantly-appointed coaches and a baggage car. The coaches were the first turned out of the M. C. R. shops there.

Briggs Davis has this season already shipped 30 carloads of potatoes, containing 15,000 bushels, and is still handling them. The highest price he has paid has been 37 1/2 cents per bag, and the lowest 15 cents per bag of 90 pounds. Farmers in South Lambton that would not accept 37 1/2 cents per bag last fall have sold this spring for 25 cents per bag, and thousands of bushels have been fed to the cattle, there being no market for them this spring. A few of the worst sold early and obtained 37 1/2 and 35 cents per bag of 90 pounds.—(St. Thomas Times).

A movement is on foot at Port Stanley to hold a country farmers' picnic at an early date.

Good fishing is reported at Port Stanley.

KENT.
Thomas Pemahokoonoo, Walpole Island, who had attained the patriarchal age of 78 years, is dead. He was a faithful and devoted Christian for over 30 years.

A watch is being kept on the river at Chatham so that illegal fishing may be detected and the offenders punished.

The Erie and Huron Railway Company are projecting to make the Eau a most popular summer resort.

It has become a necessity to enlarge the seating capacity of the Church of England at Walpole Island. The church at present seats 300 people. With the additional seating to be made it will seat 400 people comfortably. The Indian choir of 50 voices renders the musical part of the service in a hearty manner. If the Bishop of Huron can visit the Island this summer he will have a large class to confirm.

Chatham has a mysterious case. At his elegant suburban residence on Park avenue west, just outside the limits of the city, lies a wealthy retired farmer, Geo. Sherman, at the point of death, the cause being a ghastly wound in the temple. The Planet says: "Mr. Sherman is the owner of a large farm near Kent Bridge station, in Chatham township. He was last week doing some work at the place. On Saturday evening his wife and son drove out from the city to see him. They returned on Monday morning and returned to the farm again, when to their horror they found him lying in a pool of blood on the couch in his bedroom. On closer examination a deep cut was discovered on the temple, covering the left eye, the nose and the right point of the forehead. He has recovered consciousness, but has no idea as to what befell him."

About 50 of the Indian boys from Walpole Island have gone to Marshfield, Essex county, to work on H. Walker's cranberry marsh. Ziba Brigham is the foreman.

LAMBTON.
The other day 7,250 pounds of milk were delivered at the Walnut cheese factory. It is probable that O. S. Clarke will be appointed customs deputy at Sarnia.

Agent dwellings are in demand at Alvinston.

J. G. Collier, customs officer, who died recently at Point Edward, had $11,200 insurance on his life.

MIDDLESEX.
The next meeting of McGillivray township council will take place on the 27th June at 10 a.m.

A Middlesex man recently applied for a marriage license, but forgot his girl's name. Eighty-six pupils are attending the Parkhill High School, of which 43 are the children of farmers.

OXFORD.
Ingersoll has a Y. P. S. C. E. union. There was a washout on the C. P. R. Friday afternoon between Woodstock and Ingersoll.

John D. Miller, of Plattsville, was fined $30 and costs Saturday for selling liquor during prohibited hours.

Angus McIntyre, a resident of Tilsonburg for nearly 40 years, died on Friday at the age of 80 years. The old man fell out of his chair and broke his hip a few weeks ago, and he never fully recovered from the shock. He was the father of Ray, Alex and Dugald McIntyre.

Mr. Sanders, Paris, is filling the Baptist Church at Drumbo for the summer.

PERTH.
Thursday morning John Hill and Ted Merydell came near being drowned in the mill pond. They were out in a boat, and being pretty well loaded with whisky, they kept rocking the skiff until it upset. Hill being a good swimmer saved himself, but Merydell sank a second time, when Fred Stuart went down after him and rescued him from a watery grave.—(Mitchell Advocate).

Mrs. Francis Clegg, of the 15th concession of Howick, passed away somewhat suddenly a few days ago. Deceased had been in excellent health up to almost the time of her death. She leaves a family of several small children, one of whom was but a few hours old.

Mr. Carson submitted the following report:

To the chairman and the other members of No. 1 Committee:

Teacher's Association, held in April, it was decided that at the next examination the pupils who take the examination for promotion to any grade be examined by the teacher of that grade.

2. At a meeting of the principals, held about two weeks ago, it was decided that the high school entrance regulations should govern our promotion examinations, except that when a pupil falls below a third of the marks on each of two subjects he is allowed to re-examine on the subject he has failed on.

3. At the same meeting it was decided to hold examinations on the 28th, 29th and 30th of this month.

4. Should the promotion examination take place on the dates decided upon by the principals, we will require the Rectory street school and cannot give it to East Middlesex.

5. It is now time to decide where the King street pupils shall be held, and what school they shall be promoted to.

Your obedient servant,
W. J. CARSON.

The second class was dropped, and the third and fourth left with the large class. Pupils in the junior third form will be relieved from any examination in history this summer. The chairman and inspector will call for tenders for printing the examination papers.

THOSE COUPON BOOKS.
They Will Enable You to Save a Per Cent on the Money You Have to Spend.

A great many citizens are wondering as to the meaning of these little coupon books which are being distributed throughout the city.

Every one of them is positively worth $4 to their respective holders when they are used in the directions. Ten thousand of these books have been issued in this city and vicinity, so that they mean a saving in the aggregate of $40,000 to the community.

The system is a very simple one, and is used by nearly every household in the big American cities where it is in operation, and as soon as its workings are understood the same will be the case here. The books are given away free, no charge whatever being made, so that no one runs any risk in using them. The company depend for their funds on a percentage which they collect from the merchants on all the coupons received by them.

Sixty of the leading and best houses in the city, as well as several in Glenora and Stratford, have placed their names on the list, covering every line from which the wants of a household can be supplied.

Every person receiving a book is requested to use it, but if they do not desire to will kindly hand it to some friend or return it to the office of the Buyers and Merchants' Benefit Company, Albion Block, Richmond street.

Terrible Mistake.
Queensware Merchant—What made that lady go out of the store so hurriedly?
Clerk—I don't know. I was showing her a vase.

"Was that what you called it?"
"Certainly."

"With a groan."—"We have lost her custom forever. You should have called it a vase."

A Spirit's Reckoning.
Watts—I was at a spiritualistic seance. Potts—Were any spirits exhibited?
Watts—There were. I exhibited a spirit of investigation, the faithful exhibited a spirit of resentment, and that is what is the matter with my eye.

Cause Known—No Tears.
"Why, Willie, why are you crying so?"
"Boo-hoo! I mamma won't let me have any sugar on my honey."

Mistake Her Purpose.
Schoolgirl—Please, teacher, Willie Winkles kissed me at recess today.
Aged Teacher—Send him to me at once.
"Why, teacher, I didn't know you kissed!"

Worse and More of It.
Cunio (to Thred)—Not counting you, how many clerks are there in this store who can't tell the truth?
Threds (highly indignant)—Sir?
Cunio—Oh, well, don't be cross about it. How many are there, counting you, then?
