Serious Situation.

Number of British Troops Killed by Tribesmen

At Camp Malakland-The Garrison Short of Ammunition-The Sultan Agrees to the Peace Preliminaries.

Bombay, July 29.-The situation at Camp Malakand has become very serious. Word has been received that the natives in large force made a second attack on the fort yesterday. The fighting was very severe. Thirteen of the British were killed and 30 wounded, the latter including Lieut. Castello.

The worst feature of the situation now is that the garrison is short of ammunition, and it is feared the whole supply will be exhausted before reinforcements arrive. The government is making the greatest efforts to get suc-cor through in time. It is reported
