Sunday was a day of special laterest in the local churches, and notwithstanding the cold weather, large congregations were present to hear the various speakers. The work that the Young Men's Christian Association is doing, and hopes to do, was splendidly set forth in a number of most interesting addresses delivered throughout the city by prominent workers in that in-

Not a few pastors in the course of their sermons touched upon the impetus given missionary work by the laymen's convention, which concluded on Friday, and spoke most hopefully of the good results that may be expected to follow.

In the Anglican churches, All Saints' Day was fittingly commemorated by special sermons and music. The opening of the new organ at Askin Street Methodist Church was an occasion of general rejoicing, and large most interesting address on Y. M. C. "I believe," said Mr. Thomasson, "that all the problems of the church today are the problems of Jesus Christ, and the solution of them all depends upon the extension of the kingdom of Christ. The Y. M. C. A. is doing such a great work, because it deals with men. In the beginning we sometimes thought young men were coming to the association for the swimming and gymnasiums, but we have learned, and more particularly in the last few years, that many of our members are work they can do. In Owen Sound, for girls now might well follow this exclass that has 600 active members. These young men meet regularly, and their influence is far-reaching. Why not such a class in London? If attendgood. I think there is no other thing that brings young men back to the church like an institution of this kind. Some people thought that the Y. M. C. During the services Mrs. E. Wyatt sang several solos most acceptably. The opening recital in connection with the installation of the new organ will be given this evening.

At Chalmers Church yesterday morning Dr. Harley Smith, of Toronto, presented the claims of the association in such an interesting manner that it is practically certain that a gymnasium will be established in connection with the church. Dr. Smith, in the course of his sermon showed that in the work of bringing the young men of cities into the church, the gymnasium was valuable in that it attracted a number of young men whom it was difficult to reach in any other way. In the evening Rev. Walter Moffatt preached on "The Glory of Young Men," showing that in olden times, physical strength was considered a young man's chief characteristic. Now, however, people do not measure a young man by his waistband, but by his hatband. The standard of physical strength has been replaced by a young man's mental, moral and spiritual ca

Talbot Street Baptist Church was rowded last evening, when Rev. A. J. Vining continued his address to "Wonen," taking as his text, Ruth, i., 7: 'Entreat me not to leave thee." Mr. Vining, in a beautiful and impressive manner, brought out the constancy and love of Ruth's character. Ruth, he said, stood as a type of thousands of noble and unselfish women in the world's history. Ruth's wonderful attachment for Naomi is explained by Naomi's own beautiful character, which influenced the younger woman so deeply that it compelled her love. Ruth had no false pride, and set out to earn a members because of the Christian living for Naomi and herself. Many example, there is a Y. M. C. A. Bible ample.
