ON UNION STATION Minister of Railways Referred to Local Conditions in Speech Last Night.

Hon. George P. Graham is in favor of a joint station for the Grand Trunk Canadian Pacific in London. During the course of his speech last evening he made reference to local conditions and the sentiment appeared quite popular.

In discussing the objection that comes from some sections well supplied with railways to giving the same boon to the west, he cited the case of London as being well supplied with railways. A Union Depot.

"In London you have the G. T. R. at one end of the city, and the C. P. R. at the other. It would be better if they came into the city at one depot,' declared Mr. Graham, and the crowd liberally applauded the sentiment. am quite certain that if the construc tion work were commenced now, both roads would certainly come into the same station. It would be of great

These remarks brought forth a cheer. Mr. Graham finished this paragraph, in reference to the good railway accommodation of the city, and cited that as a reason why the city should not criticise any government that would give train facilities to the

MUST BUILD NEW SCHOOL BEFORE CLOSING KING ST.

Colborne Street School Is Sixty Years Old and Is in Need of Replacing.

The King street school will not be losed until a new school is built at olborne street. Such was the statement made by a man in close touch with the board of ducation this afternoon, and it is understood that he spoke for several members of that body. The Colborne street school is in a badly dilapidated condition, and has been condemned repeatedly. A sum of money was passed to make repairs to the school, but it was never spent, as it would appear a waste of money to make improvements when a

Rearrange Boundaries. The scheme is to rebuild the Colborne street school, and by a rear-rangement of the school boundaries, it would be possible to get along without the King street school. The schools mentioned as being capable of taking care of the scholars out of King street school are now crowded, and it would be impossible to make any room for the pupils. Next year's board will apply for de pentures for the rebuilding of the Colborne street school, and it is likely that the closing of King street will

Gained Ten Pounds in Two Weeks by the Use of Burdock Blood Bitters. Mrs. Fred. Biggs, Kingston, Ont., writes:-"I was completely run down, my blood was out of order, and I used to get so weak I would be compelled to stay in bed for weeks at a time. I could not eat, was pale and thin; every one thought I was going into consumption. I tried everything and different doctors until a friend advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have one bottle used when my appetite began to improve. I used six bottles. I gained ten pounds in two weeks. When I began to take it I only weighed ninety-three pounds. It just seemed to pull me from the grave as I never expected to be strong again. ]
