

HUGHES WRITES OF CAMP LIQUOR

Letter From Militia Minister Read at Convention of W. C. T. U.

MEETING AT RENFREW

One Report Suggests That Votes-for-Women Principle Be Indorsed.

Renfrew, Oct. 29.—A letter from Mrs. M. Dettor, North Bay, county secretary, from Hon. Sam Hughes, minister of militia, regarding the sale of liquor in instruction camps, read by the recipient, was the feature of the opening day of the thirty-fifth annual convention of the Ontario Women's Christian Temperance Union, which will be in session here for the next two days. About one hundred and fifty delegates from all parts of the Province are in attendance. Mrs. May R. Thornley, London, conducted the opening exercises. The Minister of Militia wrote: "I am very sorry to hear the report concerning liquor in camps. You will pardon me, but I am afraid you are in the wrong. The liquor is not obtained in the camps, but, as I understand it, in the towns adjoining, and there is very little of it used. "You will permit me to say that in the Kingston camp of 1910, which I had the honor to command, there was almost an entire absence of any kind of liquor. No Woman's Christian Temperance camp could surpass it, I am sure. If the dear, good ladies of this country, such as you, were to come out to the camp occasionally and go round, you would be more than surprised to find such a splendid lot of young men wearing the King's uniform and conducting themselves like gentlemen, with scarcely an exception."

Reports Submitted.

That all women ask their respective church organizations to pass resolutions indorsing the suffrage for women was a suggestion included in the franchise report read by Mrs. Emma Nichols, Hamilton, and another suggestion was that the press columns be used more extensively as a means of education. Mrs. W. K. Newton, Sanford, in reporting on media contests, stated that Waterloo made the greatest gain during the year. The counties of Grey, Huron, Hastings, Dufferin and Simcoe deserve special mention. With regard to prison reform and police work, Mrs. A. W. Cunningham reported that although efforts had been made in Algoma County to undertake work in the county jail it had not been permitted, whereas in Walkerton, where the jailer welcomed all societies and churches, the Women's Christian Temperance Union had not made an effort to conduct any work. The treasurer reported receipts of $2,777.24, with total expenditures of $1,282.98.

FIRE AT WINGHAM

Exchange Hotel Was Completely Gutted in Midnight Blaze. [Special to The Advertiser.]

Wingham, Oct. 29.—The Exchange Hotel, owned by C. E. Leppard, was destroyed by fire shortly before midnight. The loss will be heavy, as there was little time to remove any of the contents. The fire started, it is believed, from a defective chimney, and had gained a great hold behind the partitions before it was noticed.

A Great Tonic For the Nerves

MR. LOUIS GACHMAN.

For about ten years I was troubled with a nervous ailment, tried many different medicines and a specialist, but could not get right. Finally I tried Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, taking a tablespoonful four times a day. I improved from the first, and today am as well as any man could be; am 46 years old and feel as though I were 29. There is nothing to equal your excellent remedy, I know, for I have had experience. I will always recommend it as I want to help my fellow-men, and in this way do a little towards repaying you for the great good you have done me."—Louis Gachman, 327 Tayco street, Menasha, Wis.

FINDS LOST CHILD AFTER 30 YEARS

A Girl Who Was Kidnapped When an Infant Reunited to Her Mother.

ROMANCE AT MONTREAL

Child Had Been Stolen Because It Resembled One That Was Dead.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, Oct. 29.—A reunion has taken place between a mother and daughter after 30 years of separation, due to the kidnapping of the latter when she was two years old. The principals are Mrs. George Marcotte, Ontario avenue, Yvonne, the daughter, and Mrs. Susie White, at one time Mrs. Susie Newton, of Brant Rock, Mass., the mother.

The little Newton girl was kidnapped while her parents resided near Boston in 1882. She was taken by a man named William Morse, whose married sister had lost her own child and was broken-hearted. Morse selected the Newton girl because she closely resembled the child his sister had lost. The woman brought her up as her own daughter, teaching her her own language, which was French. In due time the girl married a George Marcotte, of Montreal. The secret came out a month or two ago, when the false mother confessed to the kidnapping just before she died. Mrs. Marcotte then decided to try and find her real mother, and advertised for her in a Boston newspaper. Mrs. White answered the advertisement and identified her daughter by a cut on the thumb. The reunion took place last week at Boston. As the daughter could not speak English or the mother French their first greetings had to be interpreted by a friend familiar with both languages.

CHAUFFEUR NAMES ROSENTHAL'S SLAYERS

Gives State Prosecutor List of Gunmen Who Occupied His Car.

New York, Oct. 29.—William Shapiro, driver of the car which brought Herman Rosenthal's murderers to the Hotel Metropole, signed an affidavit today in the district attorney's office saying that the men in his car on the night of the killing were Dago Frank, Gyp the Blood, Lefty Louie, and Whitey Lewis.

This information, so long sought by Mr. Whitman, will make Shapiro the principal witness against the four gunmen at their trial. From the four today came a statement that under no circumstances would they plead guilty, and a further protestation of their combined innocence.

In one short paragraph of Shapiro's affidavit, at the bottom of which the chauffeur scrawled his name in huge, unformed letters, Mr. Whitman has what he believes will send the four gunmen to the chair. The paragraph said that Shapiro had taken these men to the Metropole and driven them away when the last shot had been fired into Rosenthal's body.

U. S. VICE PRESIDENT IS NEARING DEATH

James C. Sherman's End Only a Matter of a Few Days, Say Physicians.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 29.—James C. Sherman lies tonight at his home in this city in the shadow of death after a day which brought not a single ray of hope to the members of his family or to his physicians. The Vice-President is slowly but surely losing ground, and death apparently is not far off. The end may come with 24 or 48 hours, or the distinguished sufferer may survive a week, but his case apparently is hopeless, and the end, it would appear, cannot be deferred for long. Hypodermic medication has been resorted to by his physicians to ease his suffering from the involvement of the kidneys, which have now failed to perform their functions, and as a result of the administering of these quieting medicines the Vice-President this afternoon and tonight slept with very few periods of wakefulness.

CODERRE'S APPOINTMENT MEANS LIVELY FIGHT

Campaign in Hochelaga Promises To Be a Very Strenuous One.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—At a meeting of the cabinet this afternoon the date was fixed for the by-election in Hochelaga division, Montreal, rendered necessary by the acceptance by Louis Coderre of the portfolio of secretary of state. Nominations will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 12, and voting on Tuesday, Nov. 19.

On Sept. 21, 1911, Mr. Coderre had a majority of over 1,300. The expectation here tonight is that despite Mr. Coderre's large majority at the general elections, there will be a contest. Col. George Washington Stevens, who recently resigned as chairman of the Montreal harbor board, is mentioned as a possible Liberal candidate, but it is considered more likely that a French-Canadian will be chosen to carry the Opposition standard.

BROKE BOTH WRISTS WHEN LADDER SLIPPED

John Roach Met With Serious Accident in Lucknow Orchard. [Special to The Advertiser.] Lucknow, Oct. 29.—While picking apples in H. Mather's orchard, John Roach had the misfortune to break both arms at the wrists. The ladder on which he was working slipped from under him.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Merry Widow" Tonight. Henry W. Savage will present a new and lavish version of Lehar's great work at the Grand tonight. That it will be a production more lavish than ever goes without saying, for Mr. Savage never does anything by halves. Myriad new gowns and hats will grace the new production. But that something new and fascinating will be offered the ladies this time is certain because Mr. Savage, through his agents and his frequent trips abroad keeps in close touch with the Parisian markets. Another important item in the general preparation of this enchanting piece is the cast. It is in this department that Mr. Savage has always displayed his respect for the happiness of the person who pays his money because it is a Savage production when there are two Savage companies touring in the same play, one will be found as good as the other. There will be, with few exceptions, identically the same cast as appeared in the original New York production. Mabel Wober, the sweetest widow of them all, will again sing the role of Sonia. The Prince Danilo of the play will be Charles Meakins. F. J. Mc-

OSCAR FIGMAN. With "The Merry Widow" production at the Grand tonight.

Carthy, an original of the originals, will also be present. Oscar Figman is again Baron Popoff. Among the other cast are Arthur Wexley, Olga Rotter, Walter C. Wilson, Vernon Brown, Lon Clark, jun., J. D. Miller, Cynthia Perot, Peggy Thompson, Minnie Otten, Kent Elliott, Viola Napp, Anna Gertrude, and the theme of mistaken identity through similarity in looks. It naturally permits of amusing complications, and they are entertainingly worked up.

"Three Twins." A trifling of charming novelties in scenic effect, possessed of much melody, charmingly costumed and with a splendid singing chorus, "Three Twins" is to be presented at the Grand Opera House tomorrow night. It is funny, very bright and cleverly constructed. The comedy is snappy and lively and is splendidly done, having the burden of the piece on the shoulders of Cecil Lyndon. The plot of the piece is ludicrous, and deals with the theme of mistaken identity through similarity in looks. It naturally permits of amusing complications, and they are entertainingly worked up.

"Mutt and Jeff." "Mutt and Jeff" comes to the Grand for an engagement of three performances, commencing Friday night and Saturday matinee and night. New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, and in fact every city, every town, every village, every hamlet, has played "Mutt and Jeff" to the biggest receipts of the season; in fact, many times to the record of the house since its opening. There's a reason for this, and it is that "Mutt and Jeff" is just what the people were waiting for; you couldn't keep the people away from it with a team of horses. Seat sale opened this morning.

"Everywoman." To five men in an amusement world indebted for the production of "Everywoman," the strange dramatic spectacle which Henry W. Savage will offer at the Grand Opera three nights, beginning next Monday, Nov. 4, with a popular matinee Wednesday evening, several hundred others labor long and earnestly in its behalf, each one contributing his several portions. First of all, of course, the author, Walter Burridge. He was a New York newspaperman, a soldier of fortune, who had looked upon the seamy side of life in many lands and under diverse circumstances. "Everywoman" was his life's work. He died on the morning of the day of the first performance. Other managers had read the manuscript and handed it back, but Mr. Savage scented its value and its originality. It is a triumph of stage-craft. Walter Burridge painted the scenery. Audiences are amazed at the realism of the production. Burridge has transferred to canvas the familiar things of life. Whether the scene is a room in a New York apartment or a room in a Belgrave, his brush has wrought a wizardry not easily forgotten. The quintessential responsible for "Everywoman" is Hy Mayer, the famous cartoonist and magazine illustrator who designed the striking costumes worn by the thirty-

The International "Ben-Hur." Sacred history, properly dramatized, must necessarily be of great benefit to all who give it attention, for where one person enjoys acquiring knowledge by reading, more prefer to study by eye and ear combined and retain the instruction thus received far more vividly than if gained merely from the printed page. General Lew Wallace's great book "Ben-Hur" is, without doubt, a most interesting volume; but how infinitely more interesting is the actual presentation on the stage of the deeds therein set forth. TORONTO WOMAN TAKES HER LIFE

Detroit, Oct. 29.—Mabel Potter, 24 years old, of Toronto, committed suicide at her boarding-house in Abbott street here this morning by shooting herself through the head. Inability to obtain work and find a home for her child, two years old, is given as the cause for the act. Several days ago the woman applied to a local institution to have them to take her baby boy, but was informed that unless the child was an orphan it was ineligible for admission. Today by her own hand she committed the deed which left her baby motherless. The body was removed to the county morgue to await word from Toronto as to its disposition.

TAFT CALLS ON OHIO TO STAND BY HIM

Hopes That His State Will Go Republican By a Large Majority.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, Oct. 29.—"No man would care to have his state fall him, but wholly apart from selfish reasons, I want to see Ohio go Republican by a large majority," said President Taft in a letter to Fred A. Geier, of Cincinnati, made public today at the White House. The President attacked Governor Wilson and the Democratic party on the tariff question, and said that Ohio would suffer particularly if the present tariff protecting the steel, wool and pottery businesses were disturbed.

PROFESSOR QUILLER-BOUCH. London, Oct. 30.—Sir Arthur Thomas Quiller-Couch, the writer, who was commissioned in 1897 to finish Robert Louis Stevenson's uncompleted novel, "St. Ives," has been appointed professor of English literature at Cambridge University.
