It is as silly for a little boy to imagine people will think he is 'grown up' becaus they see him smoking cigarettes, as it would be to imagine that people will think the little boy is a man if he parades down the street with his father's high silk hat on. To some boys and to some men, tobacco is really poisonous, and there are very few people whom tobacco benefits."

HAS FRIEDMAN RIGHT TO TREAT FOR PAY

Solicitor of the Treasury to part of the members. Make Investigation of the Point.

[Canadian Press.]
Washington, D. C., April 18. — The right of Dr. F. F. Friedman to treat for pay patients with the remedy which he claims is a cure for tuberculosis, is being investigated by the solicitor of the treasury, at the direction of Sec-retary McAdoo, to determine whether the federal public health laws are being violated. The penalty for violation is a fine not exceeding $500 or a maximum imprisonment of one year, or both.

Officials of the treasury are reticent regarding the situation. They appreciate, it is said, that if Dr. Fried-man has a cure for tuberculosis, it is the greatest discovery of the age, and the United States Government will quickly recognize it when assured of its efficacy. It is pointed out, how-ever, that the German physician has not supplied the Government with adequate means of passing judgment his remedy, and in the meantime the precautions imposed by the publi health service must be observed.

From the deck the members board viewed the ruin and desolation about to overwhelm the workingmen by reason of the mismanagement of the proposed new measure. Mr. Christian was unsympathetic with the oppressed workers. If they had been like him and voted against the measure, this evil would never have come upon them. Therefore it was quite fit and proper that they should have the expense of buying cans and of paying

TIED UP TRAFFIC IN HEART OF OLD LONDON

Militant Suffragettes Seize a Monument and Rain Pamphlets on Street.

[Canadian Press.]

London, April 18. - A number of enterprising militant suffragettes this morning took possession of "the monument," which stands near the northern approach to Lendon bridge and ommemorates the great fire which destroyed the city of London in 1666. Ascending to the topmost balcony they displayed two flags and an immense banner in the suffragette colors, on each of which was written in white letters on a black background, "Victory or Death."

Having securely fastened the flags to the railings surrounding the balcony, the women locked themselves in, preventing the police from ascending the winding staircase of 345 steps eading to the top.

Then they took up their positions inside the iron cage erected to prevent suicides, and showered suffragette literature among the thousands of people who gathered at the foot.

For a long time the traffic was sus pended in the immediate which is one of the busiest district in London chines carried Col. Boutteaux as passenger. The entire flight was made without an escort.

'Sleeping Beauty" Cantata Marked With Success

"The Sleeping Beauty" Cantata given in the First Congregational Church last evening was a decided success. The shadowgraphs were very interesting, taking one across the Atlantic, around the world and back across Canada at a speed rivalling "the latest Zeppelin.'

Miss Tuckey, a pupil of Miss Anthistle, delighted all with her fine rendering of "The Only Child." The male quartette composed of Mr. F. Robins, Mr. A. Anundsen, Mr. A. Bock and Mr. E. Wrighton gave some excellent numbers. Miss G. Oliver, student with Mr. Willgoose, delighted all of the women school teachers of the with her singing.

The following parts comprised the canata: King, Mr. Art Robins; queen, Miss Edith Johnson; fairies, Miss Ethel Bowman, Miss Laura Dixon, Mrs. Gor don Chantler, Miss Berna Sanders, Miss Marion Wrighton; ladies-in-waiting Miss Annie Bowman, Miss Willa Simms; courtiers, Mr. Harold Anund son, Mr. Harold Magee; page, Rav mond Rush; old woman, Miss M. Wal. ker; peasant maid, Miss Marion Stevens; princess, Miss Irene Anundson; prince. Mr. Leslie Walker.
