Distribute Baskets of Food and Christmas Cheer To Many Homes.

SPEND BUSY EVENING

Special to The Advertiser. St. Thomas, Dec. 23.—Santa Claus abandoned his proverbial reindeer Saturday evening and did the rounds of the city in several large trucks, assisted by twenty prominent businessmen in blue jeans. Two hundred and fifteen homes were visited,

and baskets containing foodstuffs underwear, toys, etc., distributed. Pays Court Costs. Sentence was suspended on David Durkee, city, by Magistrate Maxwell Saturday morning for inciting his boy and a neighbor's child, by the name of Earheart to fight. Last Wednes-day the Durkee youngster was chased home by his boy assailant, and the parent encouraged the lads to finish their quarrel. When the Durkee boy was seen to get the worst of the fray the father grasped the Earheart boy by the legs, hurting him. Durkee was ordered to pay the court costs.

A Presentation. The superintendent's office at the M. C. R. was the scene of a pleasant event, when Miss McMahon, secretary of the "O. S. and D.," was presented with a handsome leather club her a gold piece and presented with a handsome leather club bag, a gold piece, and a bouquet of roses. The presentation was made by Superintendent Donohue, and Trainmaster Frank McElroy read the accompanying address. Miss Mc-Mahon expects to spend some months in Chicago.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL DINE COUNCILLORS

It looks as though 1924 is going to be another year of "co-operation." City Clerk Sam Baker reported this morning that he had been informed that Mayor Wenige and members of the new council would be the guests of the Chamber of Commerce at din-rer on Dec. 27.

A similar function was noted early in 1923 and this meeting, where Lon-don's men of affairs meet with their aldermen, has evidently become a permanent feature. Press representatives also enjoyed the hospitality of the Chamber of Commerce early in the year. Whether orce was enough for the members ass yet to be officially determined, how-

Several Improvements Noted Lately in Many Establishments.

One line of business, whose owners as far as ex-soldiers are concerned. have faith in London, which is do-ing much to brighten the downtown business streets is that of the restaurant Almost daily it would seem some improvement or change that adds much to the appearance of the section where it is located is noticed in one or another of the many that dot Richmond and Dundas streets. But, while it can truthfully be said that they add much to the attractiveness of the streets, it can also be said that competition is at the have been received at the Children's base of it all. For of late weeks, restaurant after restaurant has been undergoing changes. First one and then another would evolve some idea whereby the patrons might be better pleased or better service might be given. inside and outside the work of redecorating and re-modelling has been going on until now it would seem Zink declared the judgment day was

HYDRO DOES NOT SUFFER

FROM HEAVY SNOWS No damage was done to the hydro lines by the heavy snowfall of yes terday, according to General Mana ger E. V. Buchanan. The snow, while wet, clung to the wires, but did not tax them to anywhere near the breaking point. Had it been a sleet storm, however, Mr. Buchanan said that considerable damage might

SAYS VETERANS PAYING QUICKLY FOR FARM LOANS

Thirty Per Cent of Payments Have Been Received, Official Asserts.

REMARKABLE RECORD

Thirty per cent of payments on farms, capital for which has been advanced by the Soldiers' Settlement Board here, have been received to date from former soldiers now on farms. B. E. Foyston, in charge of the work in this district, announce today .. This means, he explained, that about $40,000 has been paid off by 133 veterans of the war this year who, on their return to civilian life, decided to take up farming. Under the plan of the government, men with agricultural experience were allowed to take over large areas of land with farm houses, and pay for it in annual

"In view of the tightness of money this is a remarkable record," Mr. Foyston said. "Payments are coming in every day, and we are pleased with the readiness with which the soldiers are sending money to cover the amounts advanced them. Almost every day now the Soldiers' Settlement Board is putting new men on farms, he added. Next year it is will take advantage of the government offer, which remains permanent

JUDGMENT DAY HERE, DECLARES SPEAKER

Sunday Talk to Bible Students.

L. F. Zink delivered a very interesting address before the Bible Students' Association at Hyman Hall yesterday on judgment day. At the beginning of his talk Mr.

And the result is that the successions and the result is that the successions and the result is that the successions and the result is that the succession and the time of the dead, that the successions are the successions. It is that the succession and the time of the dead, that the succession are the succession and the succession are now possesses some of the most they should be judged, and that thou shouldern and most attractive "eating shouldst give reward to thy servant shouldst give reward to thy servant and all who reverence thy name, and destroy them who corrupt the earth.

The invisible Christ, earth's new and rightful king, is here." "Judgment of nations precedes that of individuals, and the wrong impression of this is still held by many the speaker asserted. "Jesus is to be the judge, for 'the father judgeth no man but hath committed all judgment unto the Son,' and He came not into the world to condemn the world, but that the world, through him, might be saved.' "The Scripture speaks of Him as the 'light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. have not had the full light of knowledge, but will have in the judgment (trial) day. WERE SATISFACTORY Much has been said in past years about the city voters' list and much criticism has been directed at every election, but City Clerk Baker states that the London lists were quite as satisfactory as those in any com-munity in the province and much better than the most.

The clerk still insists, however, that the ratenavers themselves could with but little inconvenience, prove a great help to his department and themselves if those who move from one section of the city would drop a card to his office stating their old and new address.

It would aid materially if those who purchase property would also notify his department in a similar
