JUSEPH BUNTER. Common, Astoria. Arriva-Steaming G. W. Elder, Victoria. SUNDAY SEATING.—Skinner's bottom was covered with a large number of ladies and gentlemen Sunday morning and af-ternoon, enjoying the brasing exercise of skinming the glassy surface of the ice. The exciting sport of hocky or "shinney" was played with great zest, in which many of the skaters were given bruised shins, while one young man sustained a broken nose. Two others were unfortu-nate enough to rush off the ice into about six inches of water, one falling down and peting a thorough cold bath, chilling to his interest in the sport. However, three or four hundred who were on the pond immensely enjoyed the rarity in the visitity of a fine ice surface. AR AND APPLE SEEDLINGS, ALSO. py and useful lives. R.
