

MR. ROSS JOINS THE CABINET

Blow was Faul.

OGDEN, Utah, Oct. 3.—In the eleventh round of what was to have been a twenty-round go at the fair grounds last night Gene McGovern, of Milwaukee, was given the decision over Jim Regan of San Francisco. During the first eight rounds honors were even. After a minute's fighting in the eleventh round, McGovern received a blow in the stomach that sent him to the floor. He was up, but he sent him out. McGovern's seconds declared that he had been fouled. Two physicians called in and pronounced the information declared he had been stunned in the groin. Referee Payne then reversed his decision, giving the fight to Regan on a foul and declaring all bets off.

Red Sweater Kid."

SEATTLE, Oct. 8.—Traced for five years through a dozen states and provinces by government officers, William J. Urquhart, 31 years old, wanted a Name, a Number and a new identity, in highway robbery, was located at Macleod, Alberta, last Monday through the efforts of J. Warren, special government agent for the second judicial district. Urquhart, who was known as "Red Sweater Kid," was taken to the city jail for safe-keeping by Warren, who tells the story. According to Warren, Urquhart is a small, well dressed man of innocent appearance, but a very clever and daring bandit who has evaded government operatives who have ever captured. He is known to the police of many cities as William J. Urquhart, alias Bob McCullough, alias "Red Sweater Kid," alias "Red Hall, alias "Red Sweater Kid."

ernment agent for the second judicial district of Alaska. Last night Urquhart was taken to the city jail for safe-keeping by Warren, who tells the story. According to Warren, Urquhart is a small, well dressed man of innocent appearance, is one of the most desperate bandits the government operatives have ever captured. He is known to the police of many cities as William Urquhart, alias Bob McCullough, alias Bob Kennedy, alias J. H. Hall, alias the "Red Sweater Kid."

WILL NOT ENDORSE UNIVERSAL RULE

Vancouver Yachtsmen Fail to Adopt Suggestion Victoria Regarding Regulations Governing International Race

does not mean that the international rule must remain in force for it is in force now jointly with the universal rule. The action of the club means that the rule is in force for them, and they may clear to fall in line with the request of the Victoria Yacht club to have the deed of gift of the Alexandra trophy altered from the international rule to the universal rule. The action of the club does not mean that the international rule still another half hitch to the knotty question of rating rules governing yacht racing in general and the Alexandra cup competition in particular. The action of the club is in favor of the universal rating rule as it is essentially a Yankee creation.

yachtsmen who have aspirations to building a cup challenger next spring have been talked into favoring a universal rule and thereby hangs the present misadventure. If the Royal Vancouver Yacht club and the North Vancouver Yacht club do not favor the change it is not likely that the Victoria yachtsmen will side with the American clubs.

The question is now up to the North Vancouver Yacht club and from what is known of the sentiment of the yachtsmen on the north side of the inlet it is not likely that they will favor the universal rule.

MANCHURIAN BANDITS

Patrols—Authorities Are Helpless

PEKIN, Oct. 7.—Recent depredations of bandits in Manchuria have stirred the military authorities to issue orders have been issued to the viceroys of Manchuria to appoint a high military commander for the purpose of subjugating the Hungghu bandits and effecting reforms in the military administration of the three provinces. The viceroys, however, is reported to have requested that the project be held in abeyance for the present, on account of the general financial and administrative difficulties which have retarded the activities of the bandits continue. According to a recent telegram from Changchun, a Japanese patrol was ambushed by a party of twenty band and another left for dead. Three days later a force of 200 bandits made their appearance in the same district, but encountering a stronger force of troops were driven off after inflicting a loss of one killed and four seriously wounded. Two weeks ago a body of 100 desperadoes appeared at a place near Kinkoshi station and a small battle took place between them and the garrison. Six bandits and two of the Japanese soldiers were wounded.

The announcement was last evening made by Premier McBride that Mr. William R. Ross, the sitting member for Fernie, has been invited to a place in his cabinet, and that his name having been submitted to His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor, His Honor being pleased to accept Mr. Ross as one of his advisers.

The new minister is now on his way to the Capital, and is expected

The new lands minister, Hon. Wm. Roderick Ross, who has filled the important post of Conservative whip and chairman of the Private Bill committee during some time past, is personally one of the most popular members of the local house, while at the same time he occupies a position of precedence by reason of his long and continuous representation of one of the most populous and important constituencies of British Columbia.

The new minister, who holds the degree of a master of arts and is also a Kins counsel of British Columbia, was educated at St. John's college, Winnipeg, where he graduated and received his degrees and was married on October 5, 1892, to Miss Lolla Young, to whom five children have been born. From Mr. Young is the vice-president of the Western Cattle Co., and has played a conspicuous and useful part in the business and commercial affairs of East Kootenay during several years past. He was first elected to represent Fernie riding in the Provincial House in 1895, being re-elected in 1900 and 1904. His home and offices are in the city of Fernie.

Archaeological Find
ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 7.—In an ancient sarcophagus recently unearthed in the Chersonese, in the course of archaeological excavations, were Archaeological excavations, several cups of a form hitherto unknown have been discovered, as well as two rings with artistically engraved stones of the semi-precious order. The grave in which the sarcophagus was found had remained absolutely untouched for ages, whereas most of the graves found nowadays show traces of having been rifled at some previous period and very often there are traces of robbers having opened the graves in different ages.