The Lord's Day Alliance

The local Executive of the Lagd's Day Alliance at its meeting Friday evening was not of one mind, regarding what course of action to pursue regarding the Sunday labor at the sugar plant. There was a two-hour discussion, which resulted in the appointment of a committee —Rev. J. W. J. Andrews, and Mr. E. P. Chement, K.C., to interview, Supt. G. M. Bradrick, and endeavor by pursuasion, to have no further work done on Sunday. The following citizens were present: Revs. Bradley, Mc-Ewan, Andrew, Gowdy, Haist, German, and Messers. W. A. Greene, A. L. Breithaupt, A. A. Voelker, Baker, R. D. Lang, E. P. Chement, W. H. Becker and J. F. Martinson.

Is public sentiment behind the Lord's Day Alliance? This was discussed at considerable length before a committee was appointed to deal with this specific case.

Rev. Mr. Haist, said he had been told that men of respectable standing in the churches, had worked last Sanday under pressure or threat that they would lose their structions if they refused to work on Sunday. He believed public sentiment is behind

Mr. Andrew said he did not care to go so far, under the existing circumstances, the condition of public sentiment. Mr. Clement declared that three-fifths of the townspeople were not in sympathy with the Alliance and that it was a question whether it was not something for personal conscience.

Rev. Mr. Andrew, and Messers. Cowan and Baker were appointed to look after this. Another committee to look into any cases of Sunday business, was appointed before adkornment.

SANDFORD'S FIGHT FOR LIFE

Morning One Leg Released.

Paris Oune 28.—(3 a.m.)—The rescuers have one of Joshua Sandford's legs out of the earth and brick of his living tomb, and are working with renewed activity to entirely release him. It is thought that his foot is caught in the rope of his bucket, but that any minute might see him free and ready to be brought to the top. The imprisoned leg is quite dead dead from numbness, and one of his arms is also paralyzed. Notwithstanding this Sandford remains cheerful.

"Yall Up the Buckets!"

The crying and moaning ceased the moment the fresh air from the new shaft drove away the foul atmosphere of the prison cell, and the man spoke: "Pull up the buckets!"

His mind was still wandering.

When his arm was released, he partially turned his head and remarked: "Where am I?"

Then he recognized the faces of his rescuers.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I want to tell you and all the young lade of the country, how grateful I am to you for the benefits I have received from using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from the superssed menstruation, and it affected my entire system until I became weak and debilitated, and at times felt that I had hundred aches in as many places. I only used the Compound for a seweeks, but it wrought a change in me which I felt from the very beginning. I have been very regular since, have no pains, and find that in cutting body is as if it was renew. d. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinham's Vegetable Compound to everybody."—Miss Elizabeth Cair 69 W.
