BRIDGETOWN, AUGUST 13, 1879.

GOSSIP.

In all communities there is a class of people of both sexes, who spend much of their time in gossip. Some of them are impelled to this course as a pastime...

But of all gossips in the world, none are more active and far-reaching than are the newspapers. The Athenians of old had a morbid desire to "hear some thing new."

An old and respected resident of Hampton, Mr. Samuel Foster, departed this life on the 29th July, in the 96th year of his age.

The lecture delivered by Egbert Chesley, Esq., under the auspices of the Temperance Reform Club, Bridgetown, last Thursday evening proved an interesting discourse.

A farmer friend from Brooklyn reports the apple crop very light, corn rather backward, potatoes light, grain fair.

New Glasgow has had quite a severe fire, caused by the ignorance of two little boys, who were playing with the dangerous element.

It is reported that a trotting match will take place on Petit Riviere beach, on the 15th inst., between "Little Champion," owned by A. Feindal, of Bridgewater, and "Lord Nelson," formerly owned by G. A. Mades, of Mahone Bay.

BREWERY CAMP MEETING.—The Camp Meeting Association announce officially, that the Camp Meeting will be held on Monday, August 25th, at 3 o'clock, p. m.

The United States authorities are having more trouble with the Indians in the Northwestern States and territories. The scalping knife and the incendiary torch have carried dismay, desolation and death into some of the remote and unprotected settlements of the whites.

Every Russian soldier has been withdrawn from the Turkish domains. What has the Czar gained by rushing into a war, which imperiled the peace of Europe?

Last week the visit of the Governor General and his Princess Wife galvanized the people of New Brunswick into an outburst of general enthusiasm. Their presence, as everywhere else in their journeyings in other parts of the Dominion, was greeted with warm manifestations of homage and respect.

The Parisians intend demolishing what is left of the Tuileries, the building which has played for three centuries a very important part in French history. On several occasions it was stormed and sacked by the people, namely, in 1792, 1830 and 1848.

Last week the Quebec House of Assembly passed a direct vote of confidence in Mr. Joly's Government, 31 to 27.

Yarmouth Awake!

We hope the above heading will not startle our readers; and we beg them not to be thereby excited. We are not about to exultingly expatiate upon the present prospect of completing the western counties railroad; but to remark upon Yarmouth enterprise as regards another matter of vastly more importance to Nova Scotia than the extension of railroads.

Small pox appeared again last week in St. John, N. B. The Board of Health has taken the proper precautions to prevent the spread of the disease.

Prize List.—His Excellency the Marquis of Lorne and H. R. H. the Princess Louise presented the poor of St. John, Portland and Carleton, with the substantial gift of $500.00.

The subscriber is agent for the "Lure Day Works," of St. John, N. B. Work sent to give satisfaction! Freshly packed every day!

In this County the prospect is that (with the exception of fruit) the crop to be secured will be, at the least, up to the average. Grain of all sorts, now rapidly ripening, is looking fine.

Late despatches from South Africa indicate that Cetewayo's power is effectually crushed, and that the Zulu people are peacefully submitting to Great Britain's supremacy.

TELEGRAPH NOTES FOR THE WEEK. Rev. Newman Hall, the noted Congregationalist pulpit orator, has obtained a decree of divorce from his wife on account of her adultery. The "Times" review of the hay and other fodder crops throughout the Dominion is very satisfactory. It is estimated that the average value in other years, London, Aug. 8.—The "Times" correspondent writes from the River, stating that the retreat of the British from Ulundi restored Cetewayo's confidence. It is reported that powerful chiefs, with 4000 men are with one king, and that Cetewayo sent a message to John Dunn asking what terms will be given if he surrenders now. Special correspondents agree in condemning the idea that the war is over, and deprecate Sir Garnet Wolseley's hasty action in sending troops home. A Cape Town despatch says, the report that Cetewayo had offered to surrender is not confirmed. It seems the prevalent impression is that he will give more trouble. It is represented that Cetewayo has a force of only a thousand, and it is believed he might be captured without difficulty. A despatch from Cape Town to the "Times" says news was received from Sir Garnet Wolseley, on the Unalutro River, July 21st. It is stated that prospects for peace and the settlement of the country are good. Osham has undertaken to capture the head of Lake Wuyassa, died of dysentery on the 28th June, at Berobero, 130 miles inland from Durressalam. The expedition will be continued by Thomson, the scientific assistant of Johnson. Paris despatches say that Venard de Saint Anne, the originator of the project for bridging the English channel, promises to commence operations without delay. He estimates that it will require seven months for the construction of the bridge. The Chamber of Commerce, Eighty-four members of these have already expressed themselves in favor of the project. He will visit England shortly to lay the matter before the English Government. To span the deep water he will have recourse to the tubular system.
