AS AN INDUCEMENT

To those desiring to procure the

MONITOR for the coming year, we will send the paper for the balance of 1890 and till the end of 1891 for our usual subscription price, $1.50. The rapidly increasing circulation is most gratifying, and though we now enjoy a subscription list of 1500, there are many names of this County residing in the United States who do not receive the MONITOR, and whose support we respectfully solicit.

The paper is fast becoming an authentic investor of all events, worthy of notice, transpiring in the County, and we are satisfied will afford pleasure to our absent friends, as it does to County subscribers.

Meeting of the B. and F. Bible Society.

A very interesting meeting was held Thursday evening last in the Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the B. and F. Bible Society. The chair was occupied by Rev. Mr. Hart, President of the society, who, in his opening remarks, contrasted the small congregations which annually gather at Bridgetown with the large and enthusiastic audiences which year by year crowd the Mechanic's Institute at St.

John. The question was asked, "Why is it that Bridgetown takes so little apparent interest in anything which is some other place is regarded as one of the great religious gatherings of the year?"

Mr. McElvey, agent of the society, gave an interesting and instructive account of Bible work in Italy and Austria. He was followed by Rev. Mr. deBlois and Rev.

Mr. Cassidy, each in an able and characteristic address. Both of the latter speakers expressed the hope that at a Bible meeting christianized of all creeds and denominations would come together on a common platform. However varied their views in other respects, as Protestants, they all believe in the Bible and the necessity of its propagation in all lands and among all classes of people. Valuable aid was rendered by members of the different church choirs. The meeting was brought to a close with the benediction by Rev. Mr.

Cameron.

The Annapolis Valley.

An American tourist, writing in the Cape

Code from a trip through the province, has this to say of the Annapolis Valley:

"If any one wants to see beautiful scenery, here is just the spot to find it. Nothing more beautiful can be imagined than the view from the Annapolis River on a clear day, its waters shut in on all sides by

The following, which we clip from an exchange, is quite applicable to Bridgetown: The rule of the path or sidewalk is "to keep to the right" and much confusion would be avoided if this rule were more strictly observed, in contradistinction from the rule of the road, which is to keep to the left.

The rule of the path.

"To get well along,

is to 'keep to the right'.

If you keep to the left,

The rule of the road

is a paradoxical rule.

You are sure to be tight.

DRUMMER vs. CANTONVILLE.—A very pleasant evening was spent on Thursday, 30th ult., at the house of Mrs. Capt. Saunders, Centreville, the occasion being a donation, given by the Centreville branch of the Baptist church to their pastor, Rev.

P. M. Young. By word and action all seemed anxious to show that their pastor, who came to them but a year ago, had gained a warm place in their hearts.

The evening was spent in general congratulatory and affectionate singing and address.
