Personal Mention

time usually taken. Arleigh was a pupil at the Bridgetown High School in the "B" class four years ago and is now only eighteen years of age. A splendid success in his chosen work is confidently predicted for him.

Mrs. J. P. Orlando went to Halifax last week to attend the closing exercises of Mt. St. Vincent at which institution of learning her daughter, Miss Rosie, is a student.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Parker and family, of West Paradise, removed last week to Aylesford, Mr. Parker's former home. Their property at West Paradise was purchased a short time ago by Mr. Carl Saunders. Their many friends were sorry to see them leave, but wish them all prosperity and happiness in their new home.

Mrs. George Gill, of Yarmouth, is visiting in Bridgetown.

Miss Jessie Lamberton, of Barton, Digby Co., has accepted a position with A. H. Pilcher.

Mrs. A. S. Crowe returned to her home, Granville St. East, last Thursday, on the midnight express from Halifax, where she has been spending the winter for medical treatment.

Dr. Loren Crowe, a recent graduate in medicine from the University of Toronto, is spending his vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Crowe.

Mr. Justice Ritchie, Mrs. Ritchie and daughter, were guests of Riverside Inn last week.

W. G. O'Hearn, Attorney General, was a guest at the Riverside Inn last week.

W. J. Sullivan and party spent some days in town last week.

Mrs. Judge Webster, Kentville, spent a day guest at the Riverside Inn.

J. W. Smith and wife, St. George, Bermuda, were guests at the Riverside Inn last week.

Mr. E. H. Bridger, assistant to comptroller, C.P.R., and Mr. G. W. Roddy, Accountant, C.P.R., Montreal, spent Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Jones, Riverside Inn.

The opening dance at "The Pines", Digby, will be on July 2nd, at 8.30 p.m. Dinner served 6.30 to 7.30. A dinner ticket entitles dancing in the pavilion. Music by the Willis orchestra, 5 piece of Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Murray and son who have been visiting Mrs. Murray's sisters and mother, Mrs. H. T. Chesley, at the old home, Upper Granville, have returned to Melrose, Mass.

Rev. H. H. Phinney, of Yarmouth, is the guest of his brother, Mr. J. Carey Phinney, of Paradise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Baker, of Imperoyal, spent the weekend visiting friends at Upper Granville.

Local Happenings

An ice cream sale will be held on Tuesday evening, July 3rd, on the lawn of Mrs. A. J. Wheelock's, Clarence. A good musical program. The proceeds for the benefit of Clarence West Sunday School.

The Annual Meeting of the W.M. A.S. of the Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. John P. Morse, on Tuesday evening, July 3rd, at 7.30.

The wedding took place at Bridgetown on June 19th of Mr. Fred Ernest Jefferson, of Bear River, to Miss Sophronia Louise Tupper, of Round Hill. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Cranswick Jost, D.D.

Whiteaway Club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Avarad Beeler on Thursday last at their bungalow at Clementsport. The afternoon was spent in boating. A very pleasant social evening was spent, after which the members motored to Bridgetown.

The Elm House, Lawrenceport, under the management of Mr. T. A. Elliott, has rapidly forged to the front among the first class houses of entertainment and its patronage is increasing most perceptibly with tourists and the public generally. The public always respond to the appeal of pleasant surroundings and good service.

The many friends of the Rev. Canon G. Osborne Troop, in Bridgetown and vicinity, as also those who recall the special services conducted by him in the Autumn of 1921, in St. James' Church, will be glad to hear he has promised another visit to Bridgetown for the first two weeks of September next. His visit will include the first and second Sundays in the month, and he will give a series of "Bible-readings" during the intervening week.

One hundred and two autos of actual count were gathered at the Baptist Church at Nictaux last Sunday afternoon and Rev. A. Gibson had the pleasure of preaching to an audience of more than four hundred people including twenty-five other clergymen of that denomination after which he motored home in time to preach in St. George's United Church that evening.

Rev. T. C. Mellor, rector of St. Luke's, leaves next for a two months' trip to England with his daughter, Miss Kathleen, to sail from Montreal on June 29th. Mrs. Mellor intends leaving about the same time to spend the summer with her daughter in Massachusetts. An interesting event in connection with Mr. Mellor's departure was the appreciation of his rectorship of St. Alban's, Lequile, shown last Sunday by the presentation to him of a subscription testimonial amounting to $22, the result of the voluntary services of Mrs. Catherine and Miss Margaret Rice as collectors.—Spectator.

The Board of School Commissioners have engaged a lady principal for the county academy here for the next term and plan to get a man as vice-principal, although the election of the latter has not yet been positively determined. The lady principal is Miss Christina MacLeann, of Glace Bay, C.B., who holds an Academic "A" license and has had ten years' experience teaching.—Annapolis Spectator.

"The Casket" estimates that there will be 45,000 pounds of wool handled at the Wool Grading Station at Antigonish. This is double of what they handled last year.

An increase of nigh 900,000 tons in five months from the Collieries reporting is the biggest in the history of the Nova Scotia coal industry if no mistake is made.—Mining Record.

The residents of Grafton and vicinity have applied for a charter for electric light and power, which it is understood will be supplied by the Waterville and Cambridge Electric Light & Power Company from their plant near Cambridge. The district covered will be 13½ miles and will include Woodville, Weisford and Pleasant Valley.—Berwick Register.

The Middleton ball players were excellent losers on Wednesday, considering that they have had but little experience in that line of late years. They are true sports and their town is justly proud of them. There were, however, a good many Middleton people who made a poor month of their defeat.—Kentville Advertiser.

Miss Pearl Chute, formerly County Health Nurse for Annapolis Co. was in Canning last week spending a few days with her sister, Miss Chute left for Halifax Monday morning and is starting out with the Red Cross Medical and Dental Clinic under Dr. S. L. Walker and will tour Halifax County. Since leaving her work in Annapolis Co. Miss Chute has completed a further course in nursing and health clinic work and has been associated with Dr. Boyer in office work at Halifax. Miss Chute is an enthusiast in County Health work, was very successful at Annapolis and any county would be fortunate in obtaining her services.—Kentville Advertiser.

The Monitor is pleased to endorse the above. Miss Chute did splendid work in this county. The elimination of this work by the Municipal Council has by very many been considered as a backward step.—(Ed. Monitor.)

On Sunday morning last Mr. M. W. Graves saw a deer crossing his property just at the rear of his house, West Granville Street. This is the first record of deer of this kind entering the residential portion of the town.

Mr. E. R. Orlando spent the weekend at his home arriving from Chester where he has the contract of building ten miles of roadway under the Provincial Highway Board. About three miles of this is now completed. A force of a hundred men and fifteen teams being employed at present.

Personal Mention

Men who make this test
Find quicker, easier shaving

We want you to test a shaving cream which, millions of men will tell you, gives quicker, easier shaves. It cost us 18 months' time—130 experiments—to perfect it. But the result was a cream in 5 distinct ways better: It softens the toughest beard in one minute—without rubbing in. Multiplies itself 250 times in rich lather.

Lather will last 10 minutes on the face. Strong bubbles hold hairs erect—for easier cutting. Skin is left soft and soothed by lotion-like effect of palm and olive oils. If PALMOLIVE SHAVING CREAM does all this you will want to know it. If it doesn't—well, we are the losers. Mail coupon for free tube today.
