

CONTENTS.

	Page
The Kittatinny Blackberry, by the Editor	263-264
Central Experimental Farm Notes, by W. T. Macoun	265-268
Shady Nooks for Summer Days, by Eben E. Rexford	269-271
Fruit Culture, by M. Burrell	272-278
The Pear, by R. Cameron	278-280
Wormy Apples.....	280
Cultivation of an Orchard, by the Editor	281
Relation of Cultivation to the Growth and Development of Apple Trees.....	282
Fruits, Old and New, by R. L. Huggard	282-283
Timely Topics for the Amateur, by W. Hunt	284-287
Tradescantia.....	287
Azalea Culture, by Samuel Aylett	289
Palms, by Thos. Manton	290
NOTES AND COMMENTS.....	292-295
Prominent Canadian Horticulturists—G. C. Caston.....	296
QUESTION DRAWER.....	297-299
OPEN LETTERS.....	300-301
Important to Wine Makers—How to Make Currant and Other Wines, by F. W. Porter	302
A Standard Apple Barrel.....	303
Pan-American Exposition, 1901.....	304-306
The Bosc Pear.....	306
OUR BOOK TABLE.....	307
Ontario Fruit Crop.....	308

WILSON'S FRUIT CASE

Patented in Canada, Europe and United States.

This Case provides for Immediate—EXAMINATION.

Thorough—VENTILATION,

Perfect—PRESERVATION,

Absolute—SEPARATION

of each individual Apple, Peach, Pear, etc., as well as easy handling and rapidity of packing, with a saving of nearly 20% of Ocean Freight.

DYMENT BAKER LUMBER Co.,

London, Ont.

When writing advertisers please mention this Journal.