A FRESH, SPARKLING, ATTRACTIVE, TAKING MUSIC BOOK.

Among the commendatory notices received are the following:—

From the Rev. JAMES LAWSON,—

"I have just got through your charming new Music Book, and I can cheerfully recommend it as a most excellent book. While revelling in a number of new pieces, one is also delighted to meet with some of the very best of old favourites that will never wear out. . . . All Church Choirs and Temperance Societies should have it at once."

From H. WHITESIDE, Esq., St. John, New Brunswick,—

"I have just glanced over the Canadian Musical Fountain, and am greatly delighted with it. The pieces are nearly all new to me, and I feel sure that the Lord will bless many while they listen to 'The Prodigal Coming Home,' 'We Shall Know,' 'Abundantly Able to Save,' &c. The former, as a solo, I think very captivating."
