An extract minute of the Presbytery of Truro was read, intimating that Maclean in their judgment should be transferred to the Presbytery of Wallace and giving reasons; also that Mr. Logan had been appointed to appear on their behalf. Mr. Logan was heard.

After reasoning, it was unanimously agreed that the Presbytery being of opinion that the Presbyterial connection of Maclean is part of a larger question, i. e. the Presbyterial connection of all the congregations and stations in the County of Cumberland at present within the bounds of the Presbytery of Truro, regret that they are in the meantime precluded from assenting to the proposed transference.

The Clerk as representative of the Supplementing Committee, brought before the Presbytery the Assembly's new Supplementing Scheme, and explained the provisions of the same, when arrangements were made to reach all the congregations of the Presbytery in behalf of the scheme.

The congregation of Spring Hill, by letter, conveyed their thanks to the Presbytery and the Supplementing Committee for aid received in the past, and intimating that in the future they would be self-sustaining. It was agreed to minute the great gratification of the Presbytery with this communication.

Applications for Supplements from Amherst, Pugwash, New Annan and Earlton, were received. The consideration of these were meanwhile deferred till they had been visited as above appointed.

It was agreed to apply to the Home Mission Board for a grant of $100 for the congregation of Linden.

The Rev. J. M. Robinson stated in behalf of the congregation of Spring Hill, that their church having become too small, they had resolved to build a new one, and asked the leave of the Presbytery to sell the present building. On motion the leave asked for was given.

Excellent and encouraging reports on the State of Religion and our Sabbath Schools, were given in by Revs. D. McGregor and A. Gray. The reports were adopted, and the cordial thanks of the Presbytery were given to those brethren.

The Clerk read a letter he had received from Dr. J. M. King, calling attention to the claims of Manitoba College, when it was agreed to commend the College to the sympathy and liberality of the congregations within the bounds.

Forms of petitions to the Dominion Legislature in the matter of Sabbath observance were received and distributed.

The Revs. H. B. McKay, T. Sedgewick and J. M. Robinson, and Messrs. J. R. Sutherland, F. B. Robb, and T. Davidson, were appointed Commissioners to the General Assembly; and the usual collection was appointed in aid of their expenses.

The next meeting was appointed to be held at Earlton, for visitation and other business, on Tuesday, Feb. 26th, at eleven o'clock a. m. Mr. McGregor being appointed to preach and the next regular meeting at Wallace on Tuesday, May 6th.
