FOR THE CHURCH TIMES.

MR. EDITOR,

I have with forward you some verses, which will serve to fill up a corner of your useful paper. My attention was called to them by a friend, and I was so much pleased with them, that I immediately copied them from the Religious Periodical put into my hand. They will cheer and comfort the heart of the well-nigh desponding Christian, when the soul is oppressed and weighed down with sorrow's heavy burthen! They will bid it trust in God, and confide in that blessed Saviour, who never leaves nor forsakes His children who trust in Him. They will also counsel and encourage the wavering to cling with steady firmness to the Church of our Fathers, built, as it is, "upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner stone." An unwavering steadfastness with respect to matters of faith is now particularly requisite, and the wholesome advice of the Apostle, "to be no more tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine," is in a peculiar manner applicable to the present times. The grasping of power, and the bold stand now made by the Papists, have entirely changed the opinions of many who were long favourable to a liberal policy towards the Roman Catholics, and when they become a little wiser, and a little wiser, they will find that in the great cry for religious equality on the part of our Dissenting brethren, not a few proofs will be found that while such is their cry, their real want is, predominance.

August, 1852.

Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.—Mat. 28th chap., 20th v.

Lo I am with you always—ay, even in that hour When deadliest and fiercest hath grown the tempter's power,

To guard you from each danger, to shield you with that love Which still in brightness beameth, the light of Heaven above

Lo I am with you always—to gladden and to cheer. To whisper consolation, and wipe away each tear And the earth's dreary trials may grieve the faithful heart, Yet never from God's chosen, shall His support depart.

Lo I am with you always—where'er on earth ye tread, To give your words conviction, the Spirit's grace to shed, That unto every nation, your voices may proclaim The tidings of the Gospel, the blessings of my name.

Lo I am with you always—when in the hour of death, To give a holy calmness to life's departing breath; To cheer you with a presage of bliss beyond the sky, Of hopes that never wither, of joys that never die.

Lo I am with you always—yet not with you alone, For when your ransomed spirits unto their place have flown,

The Church which ye have founded, I ever will defend, And be to her a Guardian, a Saviour and a Friend.

Lo I am with her always—unto the end of time, Since purchased by my suffering, she is, and shall be mine.

And round her in its greatness my arm shall still be thrown,

For ye are her foundation—and I her corner stone.

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF A BAD LEG AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70 Saint Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

Sir.—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed.—Her agonies were distressing, and for the whole together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried but without effect: her health suffered severely and the state of her legs was terrific. I had often read your Advertisement and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment, and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless without seam or scar, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature. (Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN, A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG OF 30 YEARS STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. Abbs, Builder of Gas Ovens of Lushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31st, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

Sir.—I suffered for a period of 30 years from a bad leg the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works, accompanied by scorbutic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated, yet in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact. (Signed) WILLIAM ABBS.

The truth of this statement can be verified by W. P. England, Chemist, 13, Market Street, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH. Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penhurst, Kent, dated December 13th, 1850. To Professor Holloway.

DEAR SIR.—My wife had suffered from Bad Breasts for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends. (Signed) FREDERICK TURNER

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE. Copy of a Letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Hexham, dated May 15th, 1850. To Professor Holloway.

Sir.—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of my leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newcastle Infirmary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment I determined to try them, and in less than a month I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the Hay Harvest and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint. (Signed) JOHN FORFAR.

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnot, of Breachouse, Lohian Road, Edinburgh, dated April 29th, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

Sir.—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject from time to time to attacks of Inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and blistered to a great extent, still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago she saw, in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight she got immediate relief, from their use, and after persevering for three weeks the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years. (Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:— Bad Legs Cancers Scalds Bad Breasts Contracted and Stiff Sore Nipples Burns Contracted Joints Sore throats Bunions Elephantiasis Skin diseases Bite of Mosquitoes, Fistulas Scurvy and Sand-Flies Gout Sore-heads Coco Bay Glandular Swellings Tumours Chicago foot Jings Ulcers Chillsains Lumbago Wounds Chapped hands Piles Yaws Corn (soft) Rheumatism
