

JAMES GILMOUR OF MONGOLIA

His Diaries, Letters, and Reports, edited and arranged by RICHARD LOVETT, M.A. With three photogravure
 Portraits and other Illustrations. 8vo, cloth, $1.75.

"The story of James Gilmour will, if we mistake not, take a place of its own in modern missionary literature. To a world devoted so much to mercenary interests, and a Church too given to take things easily, this life is at once a rebuke and an appeal not easily to be forgotten."—Christian World.

"We gladly welcome another notable addition to the number of impressive and fascinating missionary books—a volume fit to stand on the same shelf with the biographies of Paton and Mackay."—British Weekly.

WHAT AND HOW TO PREACH

By ALEXANDER OLIVER, B.A., D.D. $1.25.

TEN YEARS DIGGING IN EGYPT, 1881-1891

By W. M. FLINDERS PETRIE, author of "Pyramids of Gizeh," "Hawara," "Medum," etc.
 Illustrated, 12mo., cloth, $1.50.

In this volume Mr. Petrie has thrown into a form that both interests and instructs the general reader the main results of his ten years' work in Egypt. The very numerous illustrations, all reproduced from the accurate sketches of the author, add greatly to the value of the work.

THE PREACHER AND HIS MODELS

The Yale Lectures on Preaching, 1891. By the Rev. JAMES STALKER, D.D., author of "The Life of Jesus Christ," "The Life of St. Paul," etc. Sixth Thousand. Crown 8vo., cloth, $1.50.

"No living preacher knows better how to build a sermon than Dr. Stalker. A book on the art of which he is so skilled a master cannot fail to be read with the widest interest. . . His analyses full of subtle insight and clear thinking, admirably illustrated and perfectly expressed."—Modern Church.

"A work more full of help and sound advice to divinity students and young clergymen it is scarcely possible to conceive."—Glasgow Herald.
