

His greatness is unsearchable.
Psalm cxlv. 3.

He has been for 23 years engaged in Y. M. C. A. work, and now occupies the honourable position of being a longer time engaged in this work than any other secretary in the country. To his untiring energy, practical forethought, and sound common sense, is to be attributed very much of the success which has attended the Y. M. C. A. work in New York City, State, and indeed the whole country.

We had also a very pleasant visit from Mr. F. R. Wardle, General Secretary, Cleveland, Ohio. He becomes co-Secretary with Mr. T. J. Wilkie, Brooklyn, in a short time, and we are sure that under their joint management the new building will not only be an ornament, but prove a real blessing to the young men of that city.

THE Y. M. C. A. WATCHMAN.

F our members desire to keep abreast of the widely extending work of the Association throughout America, and to become acquainted with the most approved methods and plans of carrying out this work among young men, then subscribe for the Watchman. The paper is an excellent one, and just now Mr. W. W. Vanarsdale, the publisher, makes a very generous offer, and is prepared to send the Watchman, which is issued bi-monthly, from the 1st July to December 15th, for the small sum of 25 cents. Hand your names to the Secretary, and take advantage of this offer.

EVANGELISTIC BIBLE CLASS

Every SUNDAY, at 3 p.m.

Conducted by General Secretary.

ALL INVITED.

BE A MAN.

OOLISH spending is the father of poverty. Do not be ashamed of hard work. Work for the best salaries or wages you can get, but work for half price rather than be idle. Be your own master, and do not let society or fashion swallow up your individuality—hat, coat and boots. Do not eat up or wear out all that you earn. Compel your selfish body to spare something for profits saved. Be stingy to your own appetite, but merciful to others' necessities. Help others and ask no help for yourself. See that you are proud. Let your pride be of the right kind. Be too proud to be lazy; too proud to give up without conquering every difficulty; too proud to wear a coat you cannot afford to buy; too proud to be in company that you cannot keep up with in expenses; too proud to lie, or steal, or cheat; too proud to be stingy.—A.G.
