

half morocco, $5.50 net. Canadian agents: J. A. Carveth & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

We consider Howell's Text-Book of Physiology one of the best for both student and practitioner. With it the former can secure a fine grasp of this subject; from it the latter always gathers reliable, up-to-date matter. This is the second edition, and it has been thoroughly revised. The book is practically the same size as the first edition, as useless matter has been eliminated to counterbalance the new introduced. There are also some new illustrations. No better book on this subject could find its way into the hands of a medical student.