PUBLIC Notice is hereby given that under the First Part of Chapter 79 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, known as "The Companies Act," letters patent have been issued under the Seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 19th day of June, 1915, incorporating Harry Riley, law clerk; Alfred Bicknell and John Steuart Duggan, barristers; and Craig Allan McKay and James White Bicknell, students-at-law, all of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, for the following purposes, viz:—(a) To buy, trade in, sell, vend, deal in, manufacture, compound, refine and mix oils, greases, turpentine, paint and oil products, and act as sales agency and broker in and of such products; (b) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the company's property or rights; (c) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the company; (d) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire, any patents, licenses, concessions and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive, or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights or information so acquired; (e) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same; (f) Subject to section 44 of the said Act, to take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the company or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the company; (g) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions; (h) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the company (or its predecessors in business) or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object; (i) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring or taking over all or any of the property and liabilities of the company, or for any other purpose, which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the company; (j) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, any personal property and any rights or privileges which the company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business and in particular any machinery, plant, stock in trade; (k) To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the company and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons; (l) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company or any part thereof for such consideration as the company may think fit and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the company, if authorized to do so by the vote of a majority in number of the shareholders present or represented by proxy, at a general meeting duly called for considering the matter and holding not less than two-thirds of the issued capital stock of the company; (m) To adopt such means of making known the products of the company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals and by granting prizes, rewards and donations; (n) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the company; (o) To do all or any of the above things and all things authorized by the letters patent or supplementary letters patent as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; (p) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and of the objects set out in the letters patent and supplementary letters patent. DOMINION SECURITIES APPOINTMENTS

Mr. T. H. Andison has been appointed assistant secretary of the Dominion Securities Corporation, and Mr. A. F. White, assistant treasurer. Both are well known in financial circles and have been associated with the Dominion Securities Corporation for many years. Mr. R. W. Steele, who has been acting manager of the Montreal office of the company has been appointed to the position of manager. Mr. Steele went from the Toronto to the Montreal office of the corporation when the late Major Norsworthy volunteered for service in France, and has been in charge since. Mr. J. A. McQuestion continues as secretary of the Montreal office. The three promotions are a recognition of the merits of three unusually energetic and well qualified young men, all of whom have had their training in financial, and bond spheres, particularly.

The following companies have changed their names:—The Bow River Hotel Company, Limited, with Alberta charter, to Jasper Hotel Company, Limited; Hermit Oil, Limited, with Alberta charter, to Chartered Oils, Limited; Herald Western Company, Limited, with Alberta charter, to Western Printing and Lithographing Company, Limited; Montreal Paint and Glass Company, Limited, with Dominion charter, to C. A. Sharpe, Limited.
