WHEAT DUTIES IN FRANCE.

In 1885, says the London Economist, the duty on wheat into France was raised from 60 centimes to 3 francs per 100 kilos and that on flour from 1f. 20c. to 6 francs. Agriculturists pretend that this is still insufficient to enable them to live, and it is proposed to further raise the duty on wheat to 5f. and on flour to 8f., and maize, which has hitherto been exempt, is to be taxed 1f. 50c. The present price of wheat is 25f. and it is proposed to raise it to 25f. The bill now before the Chamber of Deputies proposes a sliding scale; so long as the average price of wheat is below 25f. the duty is to remain 5f., and when above 28f. the duty would be reduced to the old statistical duty of 60 centimes.
