

PLEASURES OF SOCIAL INTERCOURSE.

Men who isolate themselves from society, and have no near and dear family ties, cannot understand the joy of living. Why, the man who cares for nobody, for whom nobody cares, has nothing to live for that will pay for the keeping of body and soul together. You must have a heap of embers to have a glowing fire. Scatter them apart, and they will become dim and cold. So, to have a brisk, vigorous life, you must have a group of lives to keep each warm, to afford mutual encouragement, confidence and support. If you wish to live the life of a man and not of a fungus, be sociable, be brotherly, be charitable, be sympathetic, and labor earnestly for the good of your kind. It was Byron who said that "happiness was born a twin," and there is just as much truth as poetry in the idea. Certainly, the misanthrope is never a happy man.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Intending Contractors are hereby informed that in December next, Tenders will be received for the execution and completion of certain portions of the work connected with the enlargement of the Welland Canal between Port Colborne and Thorold; also for parts of the new line to the eastwards of the present canal, from what is called Marlett's Pond through the valley of the Ten Mile Creek to Brown's Cement Kilns, thence via the Thorold and St. Catharines Comeries to near Port Dalhousie.

The works are to be let in sections of a length suited to circumstances, and the locality. The location surveys are now in progress, and in some places sufficiently advanced to admit of contractors examining the ground before winter sets in.

When plans, specifications, and other documents are prepared, due notice will be given, Contractors will then have an opportunity of examining them, and be furnished with blank forms of Tender, at this office: or at the office of the respective Engineers on the works. By order, F. BRAUN, Secretary. Department of Public Works, Ottawa, 4th October, 1872.
