

3. The Sentencing State shall afford an opportunity to the Receiving State, if it so desires, to verify that the consent is given in accordance with the conditions set out in the preceding paragraphs.

ARTICLE IX

Transfer of Offender

1. The Receiving State shall be responsible for the custody and transport of the offender to the prison or place where he should complete his sentence from the time that the offender is received by the designated authority of the Receiving State, and in each case, as necessary, the Receiving State shall request the cooperation of third countries for transit of the offender through their territories. In special cases, by agreement between the respective authorities of both Parties, the Sentencing State shall assist in said request made by the Receiving State.
2. The Sentencing State shall furnish to the Receiving State a certified copy of the judgement convicting the offender, a statement of facts upon which the sentence was based, information on the nature, duration and date of commencement of the sentence and a statement indicating how much of the sentence has already been served, including any pre-trial detention and remission of sentence.
3. The Sentencing State shall provide, whenever appropriate, any medical or social reports on the offender information about his or her treatment in the Sentencing State any recommendations for further treatment.
4. The Receiving State may request any additional information regarding the offender to enable it to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE X

Execution of Sentence

1. An offender transferred for execution of a sentence under this Agreement may not again be detained, tried or sentenced in the Receiving State for the same offence upon which the sentence to be executed is based.
2. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the completion of a transferred person's sentence shall be carried out according to the laws and procedures of the Receiving State.
3. The Sentencing State shall retain exclusive jurisdiction regarding the sentences imposed and any procedures that provide for pardon, amnesty, revision, modification or cancellation of the sentences pronounced by its courts. The Receiving State, upon being informed of any decision in this regard shall take the appropriate action for the purpose of implementing the said decision.
4. The Receiving State shall be bound by the legal nature and duration of the sentence as determined by the Sentencing State. If however, the sentence is incompatible with the laws of the Receiving State, that State shall adapt the sentence to one which is prescribed by its own law for a similar offence. This sentence shall not aggravate, by its nature or duration, the sanctions imposed in the Sentencing State or exceed the prescribed maximum in the Receiving State.
