SIGNATURE OF CANADA/GREECE AIR TRANSPORT AGREEMENT

The Honourable Jean Chrétien, Deputy Prime Minister and Secretary of State for External Affairs, and the Honourable Lloyd Axworthy, Minister of Transport, announced today that a new bilateral Air Transport Agreement between Canada and Greece will be signed on August 20, 1984.

The Honourable David Collenette, Minister of State for Multiculturalism, will sign the Agreement on behalf of Canada in a ceremony to be held in Toronto at the Inn on the Park Hotel in Don Mills at 10:00 hours on Monday, August 20. His Excellency Emmanuel Megalokonomos, Ambassador of Greece, will sign the Agreement on behalf of his government.

The new Agreement permits the Greek carrier, Olympic Airways, to extend its international route network to Toronto and Montreal-Mirabel and grants new traffic rights for use in the future by CP Air in developing its services to Greece.
