NEW APPOINTMENT

The Honourable Pat Carney, Minister for International Trade, announced today the appointment of David Small to the position of Chief of Staff.

Mr. Small is a graduate in International Affairs and Economics from l'Institut d'études politiques of the University of Paris and the University of Napoli, Italy.

Mr. Small recently returned from Brussels, Belgium, where he worked in the Ministry of Employment, Education and Social Affairs of the European Economic Commission.

He has also worked for Senator Lowell Murray, the Honourable Flora MacDonald, the Honourable Donald Mazankowski and the Right Honourable Joe Clark.

Mr. Small, a former President of the Progressive Conservative Youth Federation of Canada, ran as the Conservative candidate in Ottawa Centre in the 1981 Ontario provincial election.
