

W.R.S.Humphreys, Esq. - 2 - at the first battle of Ypres. His work came under my attention there on account of its outstanding value and I was pleased to see that he received the D.C.M. for it. Some time afterwards he took a commission and later transferred to the Flying Corps, where he continued his splendid record. I think he is now engaged in Air Service work with either the Laurentide Company or the Price interests. If I can get in touch with him I shall ask him to help you get congenially located.

With all kind wishes and renewed apologies for the delay in answering your letter, I am,

Yours faithfully,
