

WHAT SETTLERS SAY

OF THE # CANADIAN NORTH-WEST.

THIS pamphlet consists of the experiences of men settlers in all parts of the Canadian North-West on various points. The replies to the various questions were given in the months of October and November, 1885, and are, therefore, in every possible way representative of the country as it is to-day. Care has been taken to make no selection of the replies, except where substantially the same reply is given by many, in which case the number is stated so far as possible. The language of the writer is given as written, in proof of which the originals may be consulted at any time on application to Alexander Begg, Canadian Pacific Railway Offices, 88, Cannon Street, London, E.C. A general description of the country, which the present pamphlet supplements, may be found in the illustrated pamphlet, "Manitoba," to be had free on application as above. A sequel to the present issue has also been published under the title, "What Women Say of the Canadian North-West." This, too, may be had free on demand.
