

I am truly grateful for the consideration and substantial kindness which I everywhere experienced from you and the Laity, and I was delighted to witness your active and untiring devotion to your labours, as their fruits were shewn in your increasing congregations and the numerous candidates presented for confirmation. I found many of you working beyond your strength, and to some I judged it necessary to suggest the propriety of regulating their exertions by a due regard to the continuance of their health. From a review, therefore, of my Visitation and its results, I have abundant reason to be thankful to the blessed Head of the Church, and earnestly to pray for the continuance of His presence.

II. In regard to our Indian Missions, we have also reason to be grateful. They may be all considered prosperous in proportion to the time which has been employed in their formation and instruction. The Six Nation Indians on the Grand River, and in the Bay of Quinté, continue to make good progress under the careful and unwearied teaching of their three diligent and pious missionaries. At Muncey Town on the River Thames, the Indians are much improved under the judicious and able management of the Rev. Richard Flood, who notwithstanding his Mission at Delaware, continues to devote to them a large portion of his time. At Walpole Island we cannot be said to be yet fully organized; but we still look forward in hope.

With what I saw of the Indians on the River Sable, I was much pleased. I found them very industrious and intelligent, and cultivating a tract of land which they had purchased from the Canada Company, and with so much success as amply to supply their simple wants. They were exceedingly anxious to have a Clergyman and schoolmaster settled among them, and promise every assistance that it may be in their power to give. Through the kind interference of the Diocesan Church Society I have been enabled to place a School-master among them, who has been already of great use, and appears to be a person worthy of confidence. I have not yet sent them a
