

Elbe,* the Ta'-gus, the Loire, and the Thames.†X

9. The most elevated Mountains of Europe are the Alps, the Pyr-e-nees', the Dof-re-field, and the Car-pa'-thi-an mountains.

10. The Christain Religion generally prevails through Europe, and is divided into the Greek, Roman Catholic, and the Protestant Reformed Churches. X

EXERCISES ON CHAP. III.

1. For what is Europe distinguished?
2. How is it bounded?
3. What countries does it comprehend in the North?
4. What countries in the Middle?
5. What countries in the South?
6. Which are the five leading powers of Europe?
7. What are the principal Islands of Europe?
8. What are the principal Rivers of Europe?
9. What are the most elevated Mountains of Europe?
10. What religion generally prevails through Europe?

EXERCISES ON THE MAP OF EUROPE.

Draw on your slate the Map of Europe.

1. How is Europe bounded on the east? on the west? on the north? on the south?
2. How is Ireland situated with respect to Great Britain?
3. How is Great Britain separated from Denmark and Holland?
4. In what sea is the island of Sardinia?
5. How is France situated with regard to Great Britain?
6. How is Germany situated with regard to France?

* Pronounced Elb.

† Temz.