

CONTENTS.

vii

PAGE

sioners the Suspension of Cash Payments throughout the United States—The Legislature is convened—Despatch to the Colonial Office, explaining the Insecurity to Property of Republican Institutions—Violent Struggle in the House of Assembly . . . . .	153
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER VIII.

The Colonial Office again legislate on ex-parte statements—Second Memorandum on the Political State of the Canadas—Curious Questions respecting Fugitive Slaves—Third Memorandum on the Political State of the Canadas—Embarrassment produced by the Colonial Office showing their Despatches to the Lieutenant-Governor (before he has received them) to a complaining Colonist . . . .	187
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER IX.

Three ultimate causes of my Resignation—1. Dismissal of Judge Ridout—Order from His Majesty's Government for his Restoration—2. Appointments of Attorney and Solicitor-General, arrested by His Majesty's Government—3. Reasons for not elevating Ex-Speaker Bidwell to the Bench—His Majesty's Government communicate their desires for his Elevation—My refusal to obey their orders—The Republican Party unmask themselves and attack Toronto—Despatch to His Majesty's Government—Important Moral in it suppressed . . . . .	218
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER X.

Order back the Militia—Address the Governor of the State of New York—H. S. Fox, Esq., Her Majesty's Minister at Washington—Despatch to Her Majesty's Government—American Pirates forced to abandon Navy Island—Receive Despatch accepting my Resignation—Important Reply thereto—Allegations against one of Her Majesty's Under-Secretaries of State for the Colonies—Nature of Evidence	344
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----