The fire grew worse. We saw things blizing down below. At about lociock there was a cry' to lower the boats. The captain behaved splandidly. So did the officers, who were English. I am sorry to say that the crew, who were Germans and Belgians; behaved very badly. The people rushed about wildly and the crew seemed to think they ought to have first place, and in-stead of quieting the passengers they made the panic worse. The first officer took charse of the first boat, but altho he wanted 'two men and children saved first, it ma-jority of these who entered, the heat were members of the crew. This boat was smashed against the ship's side. Just as it reached the water it broke in two and all were drowned. COREY. Pa., Oct. 11.—"A No. 1." ommonly called the "king of tramps," nd who has traveled all over the United States and more than a half mil-lion miles as a self invited guest of American railroads. is now an ardent ro-suffragist. Mrs. A. Bush. who lives in Erie. Pa

Eva Hinan, Mrs. Regan, Miss Alex-ander. Miss Nell Alexander. Mrs. Es-sery. Miss Eduth Gibson and Miss Nora Neill. was out driving her motor car with three other women, and bowled the famous tramp over as he was crossing the street. In all his half-million mi'es the hobo had never been so much as scratched and he has traveled in, under and atop every sort of railway

A badly bruised tramp picked him-self up and announced that his hat was off to the women. for they had done what a regiment of railroad men could not do.

Organs Nearly Given Away. The making of organs is not the business of Ye Olde Firme of Heintz-man & Co., Ltd., 193-195-197 Yonge street, but in the large number of sales made of their celebrated planos many organs are taken in exchange. They are ready to clear some fifty of these, for warehouse space is more valuable for warehouse space is more valuable to them than organs, and price is no object. Every organ has been put in good condition, and $25.00, $20.00 or $35.00 will buy one, and you can pay
