CHICAGO. May 14.-Export ousime being on account of uncertainties time being on account of uncertainties growing out of the American note to Germany, tended to bring about a sharp decline today in wheat prices The market closed unsettled at 1 7-8 to 2 1-2c under last night. Other leading staples, too, finished at a net loss— corn 3-4 to 1 1-8c, oats 1-2 to 1 1-8c and provisions 7 1-2 to 20c. It was not until the final hour of trading that the wheat market turn-ed decisively down grade. Wide dif-ferences of opinion as to crop dem-age had been largely instrumental up to that time in producing a series of irregular price changes that were hard to classify as altogether giving the advantage to either the bulls or the bears. Meanwhile, doubt as to what bears. Meanwhile, doubt as to what contingencies might arise in national relations had a noticeable effect toward restricting the volume of pit transactions. Support was not lacking, however, until the fact became evident that foreign demand had virtually come to a temporary halt. There were no advices of any fresh sales whatever to Furope.

Conflicting Reports.

Latest despatches in regard to damage to the domestic wheat crop were in the nature of a verdict of not half proved. The Texas official report was said to be the most flattering ever is-

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE. MONTREAL, May 14.—The foreign demand for Manitoba spring wheat was better today, and as the prices bid in some cases were satisfactory to exporters, a fair amount of business was worked, and there were also sales of new crop American winter wheat made. The local market for oa s was stronger, and prices were advanced ½c to ic per bushel owing to the much higher prices ruling in the Winnipeg market for cash oats. There was a better demand and sales of round lots for shipment from Ft. William of No. 1 feed were made at 64%c c.if. Flour quiet but firm. Millfeed fairly active. Butter firm. Cheese strong. CANADA'S FALLEN DEEPLY MOURNED

Rudyard Kipling's Description of Memorial Services Held in London.

ALL CLASSES THERE

Soldiers, Civilians, Women and Children Touched by Great Sorrow.

By Rudyard Kipling "Copyrighted in Canada. All ether

OTTAWA, May 14.—Rudyard Kipling's graphic account of the Canadian memorial services in London this week has been cabled the government. The text is as follows:

They pass, O God, and all Our grief, our tears Achieve not their recall, Nor reach their ears. Our lamentations leave But one thing sure— They perish and we grieve And we endure.

Yesterday evening the Dominion of Canada came for an hour to St. Paul's Cathedral to mourn over and to re-joice in her dead, and the English whose kin have fallen in the same fiel's whose kin have fallen in the same fiel's came reverently and proudly with her. The soul-searching simplicity of the gathering was beyond any words. There was no parade nor preparation except the Union Jack and Dominion flags hung above the altar. The doors were set open in the bright light of a May evening and the people entered as members of one family grieving together. Some few had waited in the seats since the close of the afternoon service a couple of hours before. The great cathedral settling into shadow at the day's end took no count of them nor of the quiet-footed thousands that followed. Manitoba flour quotations at Toronto are: First patents, $8.20 in cotton and $8.10 in jute; strong bakers', $7.50 in cotton and $7.40 in jute.

Ontario cats—No. 2 white 62c to 63c, outside! 65c to 65½c, Toronto.

Buckwheat—80c, nominal.

Bran—Manitoba, $26, in bags, Toronto. and shorts, $28, Toronto; middlings, $33 to $25.

Soldiers and Civilians.

At first the crowd lined the streets outside and watched the officers and men in khaki and the women in black arriving in the cabs and buses. Then they themselves entered in little knots and detachments—soldiers of all arms and civilians of all trades—as the they had been held back till then by the natural desire to give precedence to the nearer mourners. The flow increased and the cathedral took them all.

all.

The Capadian officers and men were gathered in the choir, a blur of khaki faring the red and gold of the bund. With them were their women in black, many meeting for the first time since their childhood, and wounded men in blue hospital dress, and behind and around all these from end to end and side to side of the vast space were the multitude of the people of London.

Women's Appeals.

A woman asked timidly if a ticket were required. "No, why should it be?" was the answer, and she and her child in black went forward with the rest—the namelees folk concerned in the war. She had her tale to tell, it concerned a nephew in a regiment, Another woman had a son also at the front and "doing well so far," and wished for a closer view of the Causalians on the ground that her boy half ought alongside them.

"You can't. They are all sitting up in the chair," some one said half rein the chair," some one said half reprovingly. "Of course. I know that," the mother replied, "I only wanted to see 'em all together. They say they look splendidly all together."

Startling interlude.

There was one startling interlude when the great west door was opened wide against the last of the evening glow and a vista of silver-gray buildings and the lord mayor's processing. IS INTRINSIC VALUE Robert E. Kemerer Says Company ings, and the lord mayor's procession came up the nave in a river of scarlet and gold. The black and khaki swallowed him and all his gorgeous attendants, and the memorial service began with a hymn that all knew and none had realized till that hour. One could hear the feeling thrill thru the voices and the music at the words:
"And now we watch and struggle,

And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
Zion in her anguish
With Babylon must cope."
Stood in Silence.
Then the Psalms, with every known and unconsidered word alive and blood red; the anthem that recalled for a moment a peace that has to be won; the lesson, and "The Saints of God." It was dark by then, and a great space case of a growing appreciation on the part of the public that the Hollinnear the west door, behind the last of the benches, had filled with men close pressed, standing together in silence. They kneeled on the stones at the world. As he pointed out be-fore, the Hollinger could without a single foot of additional development continue their present dividend paythe prayers, and shoulder badges glimmered, for many of them were soldiers on evening passes. They, too, knew the hymns well enough to sing without the help of the leaflets.

"On, army of the living God,
To His command we bow,
Part of the host have crossed the

And part are crossing now."

Missing Canadians Well-Treated.

PERTH, Ont., May 14—Dr. William M. Hart of Regina, who was officially reported as missing after the battle of Langemarck, is now reported as being prisener in the hands of the Germans, but well treated. Relatives of Dr. Hart in Perth received a cable to the set faces of the uniformed men and the women and girls in black. They sat stonily, for of what avail are tears today? Occasionally, some man back from the front nodded his head or bit his lip as the preacher named some cor twice a nurse put out a steadying hand towards a wounded man. The obscure mass in the nave and the standing crowd behind them scarcely moved.

Baptized by Blood.

We knelt for the last hymn, "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er," and it was then that the cathedral of our race, which is so old in grief, came to its own and possessed us. All the years that had gone before had prepared it for this—that it should see a new people baptized by blood into the strict fellowship of the civilized nations now at war with heathendom, that it should witness the burial of a world irrevocably discarded and the birth of a new. The still air and silence preluded the change, and when the Dead March in Saul wailed against death and triumphed over the grave the mystery and the wonder of the change accomplished itself as simply as the greatest things must.

The "Last Post."

A woman leaned towards her companion and whispered:

"Things can never be the same again." It is the phrase we often use as we turn away from the open grave, and presently our little affairs recialm us. But in this case it held the new significance equally for her and the others who had come in to think and pray over their own losses, for the stray soldiers of the British regiments all about her, and for the Canadians themselves, where they sat in the full light and endured all that "last post" means when one hears it out of its hour. People moved out slowly after the national anthems had been sung, for everyone was among friends, and there were wounded to be sorted out also, very white and exhausted and trying to Aeny it.

Canada's Answer.

And when the tawny lines of the Dominion broke up and filed outward there were many greetings and questions between those who had not met since Valcartier or some hospital in France or England. The men having paid their tribute h

The family came to Canada from Newick, Sussex, Eng., seven years ago. They are members of St. Mark's Anglican Church.

The following extracts from the last letter received from Pte. Martin, dated April 23, Belgium, and received on May 10, are interesting: "We are now resting in new billets within sound of the guns, which are being fired all the time. Our billet is in a house as large as Pellatt's place. is in a house as large as Pellatt's place.

"When we were marching up to the place we met a 'whole lot of Belgian refugees, who were going back from the firing. They were carrying everything that they owned. They had been shelled out of their homes. Believe me, it is a sad sight to see them.

"Some of them had hardly enough clothes to keep them warm. We heard that a lot of them had been killed the day before we got here."

GERMAN EMBASSY IS SILENT ON NOTE

Count Bernstorff Refuses to Discuss Position of His Government.

UNANIMOUS APPROVAL

President Wilson Inundated With Messages From All Political Parties.

WASHINGTON, May 14. - Official Washington talked of little else than the note today. The practically unanimous approval given to it in the editorial comment of the American press, the statements of governors, senators and members of the house CONFISCATE ALL was reinforced by an incessant QUEENSTOWN, May 14.—Alfred G. stream of messages from persons of every political party and from a variety of organizations and associations. President Wilson told his callers he was deeply grateful and appreclated the patriotic support that was being given him on every side.

In diplomatic quarters there was wide discussion of the note to Germany. Among representatives of the allied powers the document was approved, as well as by neutral envoys, many of whom obtained copies from the state department. The German Embassy—the one place where it was naturally to look for some inkling or intimafor some inkling or intima-tion of what Germany's position would be—remained silent. Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, in fact called on Secretary Bryan with the express purpose of warning him that none of the reblished stories were true which pur orted to give anonymous views of members of the embassy staff to the effect that Ger-many would refuse to meet the Augusta many would refuse to meet the Am-len can note's suggestions. He ask-

REPORTED MISSING PUT ALIEN ENEMIES UNDER DETENTION

Police Thruout England Collect Germans and Austrians of Military Age.

SHORTAGE OF ROOM

Many of Men Over Military Age Beg Not to Be Deported.

LONDON, May 14-The police thruout the country have been busy all day gathering subjects of hostile countries of a military age, and de-spatching them to detention camps. Many hundreds voluntarily surrendered, and were sent off in batches, 500 going to Southend to be placed aboard steamers which have been fitted up for the purpose. The only difficulty the authorities are faced with is that of finding room, as the suddenness with which the government came to its decision following the riots gave no time to prepare new camps.

As all subjects of enemy countries have been registered since the commencement of the war, and have been compelled to report priodically to the compelled to report priodically to the police, there is no difficulty in locating them. Some, however, with large businesses must be given time to arrange their affairs. In most cases the business has been transferred to Britons or neutrals, but some alien businessmen closed their premises immediately. One result of this was felt in the east end of London, where the majority of small bakers are Germans, the people this morning finding themselves deprived of their usual supplies.

Beg to be interned.

A greater task will be that of arranging for the repatriation of women and children and men over the military age. Many of the latter have resided in England a lifetime, and have no other home, and are pleading as an alternative to be interned with the younger men, Altho the country has been calmed by the government decision to deal with aliens, considerable sporadic anti-German rioting occurred. In some parts of London tonight, I'eckham. Nunhead and Tottenham among them, a number of German shops were attacked.

Serious disturbances also are reported from Rotherham and North Shields among other places.
By night the streets were crowded with thousands of rioters who were carrying away provisions of all kinds from the looted shops. At North Shields many shops were attacked, but there was no looting.

Lord Charles Beresford Urged Government to Take

Strong Action. INDIGNATION AROUSED

Germany Stands at World's Bar, Naked and Unashamed Monster.

LONDON, May 14, 11 p.m.—The riots which occurred earlier in the week have given place to condemnation by public men of the German Emperor and his advisers who are charged with the responsibility for the actions which ed the co-operation of the state de-partment to prevent the spread of this misinformation, and Mr. Bryan mand is made that the British Govquest.

The German ambassador told enquirers later that he knew absolutely nothing of the position of his government because he had received no communication and naturally would not until the note itself had been presented. He declined to discuss his own views for publication.

I mand is made that the British Government publicly proclaim the personal responsibility of members of the German Government for "the outrages perpetrated by German officers or their agents during the present war."

A resolution in this sense was moved at a public meeting in Chelsea tonight by Lord Charles Beresford and was seconded by Lord Robert Caeil 1.

William's Cafe, Yonge street, was damaged to the extent of $2800 by fire which broke out in the top storey of the building at 2 o'clock this morning.

Whether installable of incoming whether installable of the wasten in Germany are treated as honorable prisoners of war.

Lord Cecil said he had been told that Emperor William did not approve of what had been done, but the speaker declared that if the German emperor disapproved and allowed these things to go on he was ten times more guilty and must be punished; this must be one condition of any peace.

Lewis Harcourt, British secretary of state for the colonies, speaking at a meeting on the waterfront tonight, said that Germany "stood at the bar of the world a naked and unashamed monster, simulating humanity, but in fact a reversion to prehistoric barbarism."

College and Football

OTTAWA, May 13.—A huge stadium with a seating capacity of at least seven thousand is to be erected by the Athletic Association of the Ottawa Univarsity. The site selected for the new athletic field is where Varsity oval now stands. Work has already been started and the stadium should be completed by next fall. Specifications and plans will be drawn up in the course of a few days, and it is the intention of the association to make it one of the largest and most modern of its kind in the Dominion.

The various athletic enterprises at the BLOWN TO PIECES.

NELSON, B.C., May 14.—John Mc-Intosh. 16 years old, was blown to pieces by stumping powder at Fier Valley yesterday. He was clearing land on his father's ranch.

The various athletic enterprises at the University have been seriously hampiered during the last few years thru the lack of a suitable field, but with the new stadium it is altogether likely that they will seek readmission into the Intercollegiate Football League, and will go into all other lines of sport which helps to attract athletic students to any college.
