

L
F1028
1882 S

INTRODUCTION.

In this work we aim to represent the industries of Brandon as they exist at the present time, and all statements made, and figures given, have not been guessed at, nor even approximated, but gained by personal investigation. Emigrants or visitors to the Canadian North-west will add much to their chance of success or fund of information by stopping off at Brandon, and viewing for themselves what a few short years have accomplished.

THE PUBLISHERS.

Fe
the g
forms
Easte
the v
there
few y
mono
white
fertil
popul
hardy
No
power
and p
long
forme
valua
other
that t
intere
shrew
with
We
more
and F