LIEUTENANT COLONEL MURRAY, being again called in, was examined.

Q. On the 29th, when he was ordered by Sir John Mordaunt to reconneitre the Coast, what Observations he reported to Sir John?

elles de la lateración.

A. Colonel, Howard, Lieutenant-Colonel Wolfe, Captain How, and the Deponent, went on board the Viper Sloop, which Sloop lay nearest the Shore in the Bay of Chatelaillon. They viewed the Coast from the Top of the Awning, (which is elevated above the Deck) and faw a Tent, and fix Guns naked upon the bluff Point of Chatelaillon. From that Point to the Point Angolin they computed it to be about three Miles and an half, or four; all which afforded a good Landing; but there was a Ridge of Sand Hills, that ran from Point to Point quite along the Bay, within about forty Yards of High Water Mark, to the best of his Judgment. These Sand-Hills seemed to be about 25 or 30 Feet, in general, perpendicular Height, and capable of concealing any Number of Troops from their Sight. They faw no Troops, Redoubts, or Batteries, (excepting the Battery he has mentioned) to oppose a Debarkation. The Captain
