

THE LIFE AND WORKS OF
WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

Edited by PARKE GODWIN.

I.

A Biography of William Cullen Bryant, with Extracts from his Private Correspondence. By PARKE GODWIN. With Two Portraits on Steel: one from a Painting by Morse, taken in 1825, and one from a Photograph taken in 1873. In two vols., square 8vo. Cloth, $6.00.

Containing a full account, from authentic sources, of the poet's ancestry; of his boyhood among the Hampshire hills; of his early poems; of his ten years' life as a country lawyer; of his long editorial career in New York; of his intercourse with contemporaries; of his travels abroad and at home; of the origin of many of his poems; of his political opinions; of his speeches and addresses; and of the honors he received.

"Perhaps the most entertaining and delightful memoir of the present generation, combining, as it does, the charm of the poet and the force of a publicist; the freshness and beauty of the country, with the wealth and refinement of the city; every variety of intellectual life; social and public questions; brilliant conversation and rich correspondence; travel in foreign lands; scenes in the eye of a poet and philosopher—all these and a host of other subjects, admirably selected, arranged, and touched, make up two charming volumes, which we have read with great interest."—New York Observer.

"Mr. Parke Godwin has done his work of love with remarkable completeness. The biography is more than its name implies. Mr. Bryant's life was so closely interwoven with the literature and politics of the country that Mr. Godwin's work becomes, in effect, a history of the development of thought in the United States for the last sixty years. On this account Mr. Godwin's latest labors are of extraordinary value, the full measure of which can not now be estimated."—New York Journal of Commerce.

The Poetical Works of William Cullen Bryant. In two vols., square 8vo, uniform with the "Biography." Cloth, gilt top, $8.00; half calf or half morocco, $12.00.

This edition of Mr. Bryant's poems contains: 1. All Mr. Bryant's poems that have hitherto appeared, with his latest corrections. 2. Sixty or more never before collected, including some thirty beautiful hymns, and a companion piece to "Sella" and "The Little People of the Snow." 3. Copious notes by Parke Godwin, giving various changes in the more important poems, an account of their origin, and other interesting information.

"No more fitting memorial of a poet could be devised by ingenuity and affection combined than an edition of his works in a form so beautiful as this. No finer specimens of book-making have ever issued from the American press than these volumes. The type is large, the press-work simply perfect, the margins wide and uncut except at the top, and the binding rich and tasteful. Many so-called éditions de luxe are inferior to this in real excellence. The time has not yet come for a just estimate of Bryant's true place as a poet. But is it not something to have earned the distinction of being the only American poet of a century who has written blank verse that will live in literature alongside of that of Wordsworth and Milton?"—New York Examiner.
