

President for president of Senate, 527; fears treaties of peace may be too easily made, 530; seconds motion that treaties require a majority of whole Senate, 534; moves that treaties shall require two-thirds of whole Senate, 533; moves notice of treaties be sent to Senators, 534; moves legislature have sole power to create offices, 537; thinks Congress must agree to constitution, 540, 542; favors two-thirds vote to set aside President's negative, 555; proposes Congress be forbidden to impair contracts, 567; opposes judicial power of revision of laws, 51; opposes association of judiciary with executive in revisionary power, 68; opposes revisionary power of judiciary, 296, 406; moves power of removal by judges, 473; thinks provision for juries necessary, 566; insists on jury trial in civil cases, 572; doubts powers of convention, 28; on evils of democracy, 32; fears ratification of constitution by people, 50; thinks commercial and moneyed interests secure in State legislatures, 73; opposes requiring oaths from members of State governments to observe constitution, 90; moves that Senate be restrained from originating money bills, 97; urges agreement, 170; thinks originating money bills in first branch of legislature a concession from small States, 217; favors money bills from first branch of legislature, 391; insists on national plan, 220; moves consideration of general powers, 221; moves to consider basis of taxation, 246; fears power of West, 251; favors discrimination against West, 252; insists on concessions, 254; opposes adjournment, 262; moves oath to support national government, 304; opposes ratification by people, 306; moves commitment of constitution, 311; opposes exclusion of public debtors from office, 328; property an object of government, 328; favors qualifications for legislature, 330; moves to disqualify pensioners, 330; capital should not be at State capital or large city, 332; would exclude foreigners from government, 384; opposes tax on exports, 411; opposes taxing power, 412; moves power to establish post roads, 413; opposes power to suppress rebellion without State's request, 417; wants action in favor of public securities, 421; opposes armies in time of peace, 424; moves to limit army in time of peace, 424; favors State control of militia, 426, 452; moves mode of impeachment, 429; proposes taxation according to representation, 435; opposes assumption of State debts, 435; favors taxation by representation, 437, 438; opposes power over exports, 440; would not sanction slavery, 445; opposed to bills of attainder and ex post facto laws, 449; thinks provision to fulfill engagements of old government necessary, 450; fears national control of militia, 453; supports State governments, 454; thinks debts should be paid, 466; opposes constitution, 500; objects to appropriations for army for two years, 512; objects to authority over forts, 513; moves reconsideration of articles concerning amendments, oaths, and ratification, 514; moves no one be appointed to offices not created by law, 534; moves to reconsider clause relating to amendments, 538; approves amendments proposed by legislature to States, 539; favors Bill of Rights, 557; thinks ex post facto laws should be extended to civil cases, 565; proposes clause for liberty of the press, 565; favors publication of accounts of expenditures, 566; moves amendment for State admission, 573; wishes amendments by convention, 574; favors second convention, 530; states why he will not sign, 576; does not sign, 583. Gilman, Nicholas, N. H., attends, 303; on committee on postponed measures, 502. Gorham, Nathaniel, Mass., attends, 18; thinks legislature may name time of elections, 371; favors election of President by ballot, 461; thinks majority of Senate may elect President, 523; opposes State compensation of legislature, 146; opposes ineligibility of members of first branch of legislature to office, 150; proposes compromise on representation in Senate, 162; suggests four years for Senators, 165; moves six years for Senate, 166; asks explanation of report of committee on representation, 206; opposes fixing representation in first branch of legislature, 213; on committee