

- expedition, 251; troops for campaign of 1759, 343.
- Ribaut, Jean, attempted colony in Florida, 33.
- Richelieu, Cardinal, measures for New France, 90.
- Roberval, Jean François, Sieur de, his New World titles, 22, 28; arrives in Canada, 24; divides his expedition, 24; to found a colony, 29; and his niece, 30; character, 30, 31; failure of the colony, 31; death, 32.
- Roberval, Marguerite, niece of the Sieur de, romance, 30.
- Roche, Marquis de la, voyage to Canada, 35.
- Rogers, Susanna, verses on Frye, 248.
- Royal Americans in Forbes's army, 337.
- Sable Island, attempted colony, 6.
- Saguenay River, Canada, Roberval explores, 31.
- Saint Francis Xavier in Japan, 74.
- St. Lawrence River, Aubert's alleged voyage, 4; Cartier explores, 14; impressiveness, 15; notion of union with the Hudson, 27.
- St. Louis on the Illinois River, founded, 131.
- St. Lussou, Sieur de, takes possession of the Northwest for France, 107-109.
- St. Malo, Brittany, opposition to fur-trade monopoly, 36. See also Brittany.
- Saint-Pierre, Legardeur de, expedition to Ohio valley, 269; with Dieskau, 298; killed, 299.
- Salem Village (Danvers), Mass., Cotton Mather's connection with the witchcraft delusion, 150-152, 155, 170-173, 186, 197; bibliography of the witchcraft, 151 n.; situation, 157; church troubles, 157-159; beginnings of the witchcraft troubles, 159-161; persons accused, 161-169, 184; malice as an element in the accusations, 165, 167-169, 180-191, 195; special court, 169; recommendations of the ministers, 170-172; convictions on spectral evidence, 173; trials, 174-180; executions, 179, 180, 186; protestations of innocence, 180-183; reaction, 183-185; special court abolished, 186; confessions of miscarriage of justice, 188; explanation of the delusion, 189-195; historical importance of the troubles, 195; reaction on the clergy, 197. See also Witchcraft.
- Saybrook Platform, 215-218.
- Schuyler family, influence over the Iroquois, 103, 263.
- Scotch-Irish immigrants, settlement, 259.
- Scotland, witchcraft trials, 142, 143.
- Secalart, Paulin de, French geographer, and Allefonse's narrative, 26.
- Sedgwick, Robert, Massachusetts major, conquers Acadia, 96.
- Senecas, Iroquois Indians, 45; segregated from the Onondagas, 47; and La Salle's expedition to the Ohio, 111-113. See also Iroquois.
- Seven Years' War, beginning, 301. See also French and Indian War.
- Sewall, Samuel, judge of Salem witches, 170; public acknowledgment of error, 188; on Increase Mather's displacement from presidency of Harvard, 209.
- Shawnees, Algonquin Indians in Ohio valley, 263; English allies, 357.
- Sheldon, Susannah, and the Salem witchcraft, 160. See also Salem Village.
- Shirley, William, governor of Massachusetts, project to attack Louisburg, 250; and his Assembly,