Canadian Press Despatch, Oct. 21—Thousands of people stood in a pouring rain this morning to welcome the Prince of Wales to Guelph.

Visits the College. The Ontario Agricultural College was next visited and here the prince was interested in the appointments of this magnificent school for farmers.

Speaking at the luncheon, the prince said: "This visit to the Ontario Agricultural College, which is famous throughout the world, has interested me enormously, and I am particularly glad to have had a little time, too short, to go round the college grounds and buildings and learn about your most valuable work."

"I congratulate you most warmly on your past success, and I wish the college the widest possible influence and power."

is a Farmer Himself. "I hope you understand that I do not say all this as an academic observer, who has no direct interest in your work. As you have perhaps already heard, I am starting in as a farmer and rancher on a small scale myself. I have just bought a ranch in southern Alberta, which I do not mean to leave entirely to others to work."

BULGARIAN GAVE ALL FOR CANADA

Interned as Hostile Alien After Fighting in France for Empire.

In a letter to W. E. Turley, provincial secretary of the G.W.V.A., D. Joroff, an unfortunated Bulgarian, who enlisted with the first contingent of the outbreak of war and who is at present detained at the Kapuskasing internment camp, relates a remarkable story.

"I am a Bulgarian by birth, came over to Canada in 1911, with the intention to settle down in 1912 when the war broke out, without any hesitation I answered the country's call for active service. Consequently I enlisted in the city of Edmonton, Aug. 22, 1914, was immediately attached to the 9th Battalion, 101st Regiment.

After a month's training or so at Valcartier I left Canada with the famous 'First Canadian Expeditionary Force,' Dismbarked in Plymouth, England.

"From there we were transferred to Salisbury Plain, where we had about six months' military training. Then I, with several other soldiers, was attached to the 8th Battalion, which had already gone to France, under which I saw six months' service in the front line trenches. France was then declared war against the allies I was sent back to Canada on the ground for not being naturalized.

"Receiving my discharge papers in the city of Quebec, January, 1916, and receiving a button for service at the front. Before my return to Canada, my civil life while still in Quebec, the authority stated that as soon as the war was over I could become a Canadian citizen, therefore, I was very much pleased to hear it.

"My arrest was made in Montreal on the 8th of November, 1917, by a detective, who stopped me in the street absolutely without reason, wanting to know my nationality, when I told him that I was a Bulgarian, with a returned soldier, upon this he did not seem to be interested, but simply asked me to follow him to the police station. When I was asked why I carry the revolver, I told them the truth: for self-protection whenever I happens to carry money along with me. In the case, I had $400 cash money on me upon my arrest.

"I was taken away to the court, where I was fined to pay $100 for carrying a revolver without licence. After my fine was paid over to the internment camp at Kapuskasing, among the Germans against whom I fought in France.

"This is the result of my remarkable deed, my sacrifices, and taking the risk of becoming forever an invalid fighting for Canada, where I involuntarily lost my limbs, with my body facing the huge shells and machine guns of the enemy.

"Furthermore, in a few weeks I may be deported as unworthy and undeserved to enjoy the freedom we fought for. At the same time, according to the Bulgarian military concordat, I am subject to punishment for having acted in the ranks of a foreign army. Yours very respectfully, 'D. Joroff'.

G.W.V.A. ATTITUDE. Elected Candidates by Soldier Vote Without Any Pronouncement as to Politics.

Speaking on the attitude of the G.W.V.A. to the provincial elections on Monday, W. E. Turley, the provincial secretary of the G. W. V. A., stated yesterday that because the G.W.V.A. had not declared themselves a political body or nominated candidates, it must not be supposed that they do not elect candidates. He intimated that all the soldier candidates had received the full support of the G.W.V.A. and stated that the question of V.A. politics for the future would have to be considered very soon.

"The reason it was not considered hitherto was because the G.W.V.A. felt that it would be unfair to take that step before all the boys came home," said Mr. Turley.

President J. E. Smith of the Riverdale branch stated that, in order to get the government where they wanted them, the Riverdale branch would compel every branch of the G.W.V.A. in the Dominion to go in for politics. He added that the soldiers would defeat any government that did not come across with the goods.

THE "PALS" COLORS. The colors of the 124th ("Pals") Battalion which were held in the Church of the Redeemer on Bloor street and Avenue road, on Sunday next, at 4 p.m.

A parade of all former members of the battalion will be held at the Armory at 3.15 to escort the colors to the church. The colors will be carried by Lieuts. L. B. Duckworth and C. F. James. The service at the church will be conducted by Rev. C. J. James, the rector.

CHINESE COOLIES ARRIVE. Two thousand Chinese coolies returning from work behind the firing lines in France docked at Halifax on Friday, October 24th 1919, to receive the report of the Provisional Committee, formally organized, and to transact such other business as may be necessary.

A special train with 125 civilians on board left over the C. N. R. to Montreal and points west at 6.50 Monday night.

SUMMARY OF WORK DONE BY G. W. V. A.

Mr. Lewis states that the Petrobranco branch boasts of 88 per cent. of those qualified for membership in the district, which is said to be the finest showing of any branch in Ontario.

Organizer D. McLean founded a new branch at Redwood, Ontario, during a week ago Saturday and is at present occupied with conducting meetings at Wingham, Windsor, Walkerville and Harvill.

Both secretaries report a splendid feeling among the imperial veterans, who express great appreciation of the efforts put forward by the association in their behalf.

OUTINGS FOR WOUNDED. Committee Formed to Arrange Motor Rides for Soldiers in Hospital.

A temporary committee has been formed to provide for motor outings for the returned wounded soldiers in the military and W.S.C.R. hospitals here. The object of the committee is to co-ordinate the efforts and desires of various organizations and individuals so that a regular and efficient service might be furnished to all the hospitals by those citizens who would be willing to place their motor cars at the disposal of a central organization.

The committee has already secured the signed approval of the plan and will co-operate with the committee in this respect. Names may be sent by the secretary of the Red Cross motor service, 93 West King street, or telephone to Adelaide 6562, Main 5448, Main 1980 or Hillcrest 2782, in the evenings.

Protest Sent to the Premier By Kingston War Veterans. Kingston, Ont., Oct. 21.—Quite a stir has been caused here among members of the G. W. V. A. It is alleged that the officials that a large percentage of returned men were unable to vote on the referendum.

A request was forwarded to the premier of Ontario that provision be made for the returning of overseas, following the closing of electoral registration and appeals, and that these men be allowed to enjoy the franchise at the provincial elections. The request for reduced railroad rates and granting of clothing allowance for patients of the D. B. C. R. was repeated.

The provincial government was requested to amend the existing Ontario Housing Act to provide for the establishment of local governing bodies to expend an additional $500 in building homes under the provisions of the act.

A resolution, received from the branch at St. Catharines, calling on the government to obtain proper civil employment for returned men, was also endorsed. The resolution was presented to Sir Arthur M. Massey Hall by the president and a committee.

While the executive expressed appreciation of the 20 per cent. pensions increase, they were not satisfied as being determined to continue their fight to make $1,000 the minimum disability pension.

That the Ontario command would assist the federal and provincial governments to maintain and establish governments in the Dominion, was decided by the executive at a meeting on June 3. The committee was also called for the deportation of all foreign Bolsheviks consisted of spreading pernicious literature or other acts detrimental to the establishment of British ideals of interest of the act.

British troops convicted of these acts he considered a disgrace to the Dominion. The committee also were of the opinion that the special endeavors made by the association to obtain proper civil employment for returned men was being rendered fruitless, due to strikes, which are largely due to the high cost of living. A resolution was adopted to the effect that the government be requested to take drastic steps to deal with the labor, food and clothing situation by the present cabinet and that a representative of the Ontario command be appointed to a seat on the committee of investigation.

Prince of Wales to Present Medals to Returned Soldiers. On Tuesday, Nov. 4, the Prince of Wales will present medals to about 250 returned soldiers or their dependents in the city. This will be a public demonstration, but restricted to the soldiers and their dependents. His only other engagement here will be to attend the Canadian Club.

GUNNER M'DONELL LEAVES PRISON

Sentenced to Death for Mutiny, is Now Coming to Canada.

Gunner Charles M'Donnell, who was sentenced to be shot for joining in a mutiny with 25 other prisoners, who were undergoing a previous sentence at No. 7 military prison, Cabelas, on March 3, has been released from imprisonment and is expected to return to Toronto next month.

Gunner M'Donnell was born in Ottawa and was living in Montreal when war was declared. He was rejected six times by Montreal battalions while holding the office of assistant librarian at McGill University. He was finally accepted in August, 1916, went overseas the following November, was transferred to the Canadian Mounted Rifles in England, and then to the 2nd Canadian Battalion in France in December, 1917. Later, he was transferred to the 3rd Canadian Machine Gun Battalion. During his year of hard fighting before the signing of the armistice he was known as "a good soldier."

58th BATTALION, C.E.F.

A meeting of all members of the 58th Battalion will be held at St. James' Cathedral Parish House, southeast corner of Adelaide and Church streets, at 8 p.m. on Friday, October 24th 1919, to receive the report of the Provisional Committee, formally organized, and to transact such other business as may be necessary.

As this will be our first regular meeting, all members of the Battalion are urgently requested to be present. A. E. AVERY, Secretary, Provisional Committee.

Hoboken, N.J., Oct. 21.—A riot in which pistol shots were fired broke out at a meeting of longshoremen here tonight when T. V. O'Connor, president of the International Longshoremen's Union after having declared the strike of New York water-front workers at an end, appeared to urge Hoboken strikers to return to work.

When Mr. O'Connor, with six water-front "musicians" as body guard, entered the hall one of the body guard became involved in a fight in which shots rang out. There were shouts of "Lynch him" and other cries as with a cry he rescued the man and Mr. O'Connor. The meeting broke up in disorder after the men decided not to return to work.
