Coal Miners Likely To Return To Work in the Near Future Because of a Federal Injunction That Deprives Them of Union Funds-Non-Union Miners Are Reported To Be Working On Full Time-Many Defections From Union

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Develop- ments could be made for scattering them ments today were looked forward to through the district. here as likely to afford an index to the duration of the coal strike. A spirit of hopefulness that the end of the strike was near was prevalent.

Government officials were of the opinger that the hopefulness that the end of the strike was near was prevalent. Government officials were of the opinion that the broad powers of the federal court injunction in shutting off the strike funds would force the miners to return to work and bring the strike to a close. Labor leaders themselves were said to hold the view that the miners could not hold out long for lack of subsistence caused by the operation of the injunction.

At the regular meeting of the cabinet today, members planned to give the Governors Are Being Elected in Five States.

New York, Nov. 4.-Electors in five states went to the polls today to ballot for governors, while election of lesser officials and decisions of constitutional questions faced the voters of several other states. Governors are being elect ed in Kentucky, Maryland Massachu setts, Mississippi and New Jersey. The elections in Ohio are being watch ed with interest by "wet" and "dry advocates, as there, for the first time any state, a popular vote is being taken on the 18th amendment to the constitution. This is being accomplished by a referendum on the legislature's action in ratifying the amendment. Ohio also is taking a referendum vote on the prohibition enforcement act adopted by the legislature, and is voting on two proposed constitutional amendments uching on prohibition Kentucky, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Jersey, Virginia and New York are electing legislators. BURGLARS SECURE 12 AUTOMATIC REVOLVERS FROM PT. ARTHUR STORE

Thieves Are Believed To Be Moonshin ers From That Dstrict

Port Arthur, Nov. 4.—Burglars entered the Wells and Emerson hardware store to get a collection of 12 automatic revolvers, leaving the cash untouched. There is much speculation as to why they desired these modern fire-arms, and it is surmised by some that they will be used in such a way as to be heard again. Proprietors of the store think the thieves were moonshiners who have not been welcoming recent interference by the mounted

To do so it is essential that the Victory Loan 1919 is successful. Because through the loan Canada will obtain the trade that will insure industrial and commercial and general well-being. Great Britain is in the position of being prepared to place large orders in Canada for our surplus goods, but unable to pay ready cash for thein. Canada can get these orders if she advances the old country credit.
