MINT PATTY

In the words of Knotty: "Well, dat's free to us, see?"

The Sox are hot-foot after pitchers. Winslow seemed to have enough, but what's the use against that bunch of wild tribesmen?

If the Tecs keep on whaling that ball, they'll forget the inside baseball they do know.

Knotty has instructions to buy players outright, body and soul and shoelaces.

Slumper Clark, the fast outfielder of the Sox, who was hurt the first game, should have his first name changed.

Instead of fighting, the Hamilton and Brantford scribbles are in the throes of a mutual sympathy séance.

Harris Walsh says sympathy from Brantford is appreciated, but Brantford fans would rather be in a position where it wasn't needed.

Just think how deep the Hamilton sympathy flow must run. Five straight games—a whole well of it.

And there is two-handed sympathy going east from the London fans.

The Sox sure were running in dismal luck, but no matter how black it looks, they can look up the 1919 M.O. files.

Several times Wetzell took compassion on the crippled state of the Brantford. The way Murphy crabbled, on admittedly close decisions several times, made it look as if he wanted to get up town.

Kennedy, Shay and Carmen went along hitless Saturday. The doctor, however, grabbed a sacrifice.

The more the crowd sees of Calbert, the better they like him. That first game, should have his first name changed.

The big out-gardener is making the same kind of place Oskee Neale made for himself in the hearts of the fans, and on the same stamping ground.

Burke, a new first-sacker and general utility player, arrived Friday night, and was in the stands about a week ago. He might get into the game today.

The Flint publicity agent "says that it isn't any secret that Flint will, etc., etc." And before the series close, there'll be a lot more about the Flint Vets that won't be a secret, either.

Ted Anderson will pilot the patched-up Flinters today. "Hump" Pierce is scouting for the club now. He just takes a tooth brush and a package of chewing when he goes traveling.

Babe Dye will likely stick to the Brantford. He didn't sweat heavy white sweat, but neither did he whiff all the time. His catch was a perfect one Saturday, and he covers a lot of ground.

Orients and Manhattans Win Inter-Club Games

Alerts-Manhattan Game Was of a Weird Nature, Eighteen Errors Being Made in It.

In the first game of the Inter-Club fixtures played Saturday at Springfield, the Orients took the Army and Navy Vets in camp by the one-sided tune of 12 to 0. Down, who did the hitting for the orange and black men, had the Vets at his mercy all through the game, only allowing three hits.

Armstrong, who played last year with the Orients, was back in uniform behind the bat, giving his old battery mate the same all-right support that he ministered last year.

The score: R.H.E. A. and N. 000 000—6 3 3 3 Orients 12 200 12—11 11 2 Mowat, Lowmeyer and Sanford; Down and Armstrong.

MANHATTANS DO IT.
The second game of the afternoon was one of the most weird ever seen on the Springfield diamond, the Manhattans defeating the Alerts 16 to 11. According to Hoyle and all other baseball ethics the Alerts should have won a game, but a round dozen of errors behind Johnson caused their downfall, as they had three hits more than the Manhattans.

The Manhattans were not all sure in the field either, as they had six full-blown errors, most of which happened in the fourth inning, and which allowed the Alerts to score ten runs before they were retired.

The score: R.H.E. A. and N. 000 000—6 3 3 3 Alerts 12 200 12—11 11 2 Mowat, Lowmeyer and Sanford; Down and Armstrong.

R. DAY IS CHIEF OF THE TRIBAL TRAPSHOOTERS

J. Vance, With Montreal Man, Wins Double Trophies.

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, June 27.—Saturday was the last day of the Canadian Indians' trapshooting tournament, and the scoring continued high, although the American cracks had left for home. At the business meeting it was decided to hold next year's meeting here, commencing June 30, and continuing three days.

W. P. Thomson, Hamilton, was elected high chief, and R. Day, London, a member of the council of chiefs.

W. Barnes, Hamilton, and S. Vance, Ingersoll, tied with 236 out of 300 in the grand aggregate of regular events, and in the shoot-off Barnes nosed out Vance with 99 to 98.

The Queen's Oval Cup match for five-man teams was won by the Bob White Club of Niagara-on-the-Lake, with 122 out of 125. This match was shot in the morning, and the team of the Hamilton Gun Club was leading with 119, but though the locals turned up after the schedule time and more-over were not all bona fide residents, as the conditions specified, the Hamilton men consented to their coming.

Past High Chief Watson of Hamilton, who owns to 65 years, carried off the Indian championship with a possible at 50 targets after a tie with Tacey of Toronto, and Beattie of Hamilton.

The Indian tribes' match, for five-man teams, was won by the Algonquins, led by W. Hamilton, High River, Alta., with 119 out of 125. The team of H. Morris, Montreal, and J. Vance, Tillsonburg, won the Canadian Indian two-man trophy, each scoring a possible 25. There were six other possibilities in this match, including S. Vance, Tillsonburg, but no two of them were paired.

W. Hamilton, High River, won the Hunt trophy, a handicap match at 50 targets. His score was 49, and his handicap 21 yards. S. Vance, with 22 yards scored 48, and J. Vance, 17 yards, 46.

KENT COUNTY BALL.
BLENNHEIM, June 26.—The local baseball team, which played a postponed Kent County League fixture at Merlin today, suffered a 4-2 defeat. The trouble all happened in the first inning, when Merlin pushed across five counters.

Batteries—Blenheim: McCoig and McFadden; Merlin: Dancy and Hosse.

Carmen's 9th Win Gives Tecs Series

Tribe Get Four Runs in First, But Winslow's Homer Tied It Up in Second—Calbert Gets Homer in Third That Gave Winning Margin.

Carmen hung up his ninth straight win and London swept the series with the Brantford Club on Saturday over at the west end resort, heavy hitting and good, fast fielding featuring the best game of the three, and ending in a 6 to 4 tally.

Carmen's help was his ninth straight for him in the first inning, when they went out and gathered four runs, but were strung out in the second. The Brantford came back in their half of the second, when they drove in two runs, but were strung out in the third.
