

JULY 1 1916
ITY'S METHODS
ARE "SLIPSHOD"
anner of Doing Business Amazes Chairman of Railway Board.

STORM AT MEETING
r. McIntyre and R. C. Harris
Tussle Over Shelter at Sunnyside.

"Slipshod and amazing" were the ms applied yesterday by Chairman ntyre of the Ontario Railway and Principal Board to the methods of the y with regard to a shelter for passengers to board radial cars at Sunnyside. In view of the complica-ions over the ownership of the land between Sunnyside and the Harbour Board had asked the company and city to meet to confer over the atter and recommended that the y put up temporary shelter.
The city has been asked to do nothing that it is not compelled to do. Mr. Harris, who appeared for the city, said the chairman was city. "If there is any delay it is to the fact that the board has not pelled the railway to do what it the power to order them to do."
will not allow you to stand there ay that," said the chairman.
The city has not taken over the aid Mr. Harris.
am not going to split hairs with Mr. Harris," replied the chairman.
know perfectly well the position it is in; the city is in equity the er of that road and should make arrangement and not do business such a slipshod way. The way business of the city is done is ing to me."

Harris Retorts.
think the manner in which the business is done will compare ably with the manner in which business of the board is done," red Mr. Harris.
n view of the attitude assumed by city we shall have to witness the acle for months and months to e of thousands of people suffering invenience during the inclement ther, and the onus for this state of irs rests upon the city and upon city alone," replied Mr. McIntyre.
went on to say that the meeting ed by the board in the hope of arging some shelter for the people proved "fruitless" thru the inivity of the city.
he position is that when the frame of the line ran out two years ago, instead of allowing the company to continue for another five years, the city gave notice that it ied to take over the line. A bylaw that effect was passed, but the hey have never been handed over to company, which still continues to rate the line. The city declared it would build a lavatory on a ingular piece of ground across the and a waiting room on the road side. Nothing was done, and when estimates for this year were made it was discovered that the city no intention of fulfilling this mise. Hence the fruitless confer-ce yesterday.

PREDICT LARGE CROWDS.
Recent indications are that the nd of holiday travelers will be the est handled from the Union Stain some years. Yesterday the ing trains were crowded from y morning till late at night with e who are taking advantage of the p rates allowed with the return Monday. It is estimated by offi-als that for the holiday there will be from this station 100,000 ile.
