Lavished on Man o' War

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 14.—Every luxury lavished on royalty is the portion of Men o' War, world champion thorobred, at Hinata Farm near here, where he has A private groom, private feed tubs, a private pasture, where he is allowed to run loose—those are some of the things provided by his owner, Samuel D. Riddle of Philadeiphia, and Miss Elizabeth. Daingerfield, noted woman breeder of thorobreds, under whose care he has been placed.

Animals such as Man o' War are not Animals such as Man o' War are not allowed to do the many things their plebian brothers and sisters do, that might expose them to danger. When the famous racer left the farm at Berlin. Md., where he was stabled after his return from his triumph over Sir Barton at Windsor, he was placed in a padded automobile van and hauled to the express car. On his arrival in Lexington he was inloaded into another van and taken to he Kentucky Jockey Club race track for xhibition before admiring thousands of Kentuckians.

Kentuckians, Feed tubs for Man o' War have been specially built by a Lexington tinsmith, ecial precautions being taken to see that the famous racer cannot injure himself. The stalls in the barn are much like those in the barn of any thorobred breeding farm, but thru and about the barns at all hours of the night a watchman makes his way to see that no harm befalls any of the racers.

The hay market is a good deal easier, first-class hay bringing from $30 to $33 a ton, and second-class $26 to $28 a ton. Not enough straw was coming in to make the while to give a quotation.

Poultry.

The poultry market is holding just about steady with last week, with receipts falling off very sharply the last two or three days, due to some cause or other. For nice chickens from 42c to 45c a pound was proilers 38c to 40c, fowl 35c to 40c, and roosters 32c to 35c a pound.
